Fire Commissioners 'Open' on Unification

A resolution pertaining to the proposed consolidation of fire districts was adopted by the Contra Costa Fire Commissioner's Association last Thursday at a meeting in the Casa Orinda, Orinda.

Zach Montgomery, new president of the association said the resolution would go before the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors next week. After the supervisors have reviewed the resolution, the commissioner's association will meet again to determine their stand on the issue.

MONTGOMERY declined to make public the essence of the resolution until it had been duly received by the supervisors. It is generally believed, however, that the resolution, in part, expressed the commissioners' concern that the supervisors had discussed consolidation without any prior discussion with the commissioners.

Indicative of the intense interest of fire commissioners and the districts which they represent in the proposed consolidation of fire districts, attendance at the meeting of the Contra Costa Fire Commissioner's Association was greater than it had been in months.

Montgomery reported representatives from East Contra Costa, Central, Mountain View, El Sobrante, and Lafayette Districts attended the meeting.

SOME COMMISSIONERS, according to Montgomery, were "very vocal" in their opposition to the proposed consolidation. Uppermost in all commissioner's thoughts, he added, was whether or not such a move would save money.

Generally speaking, the commissioners were reserving opinion and "keeping an open mind" until further facts and figures on consolidation could be determined.

Two districts are concerned that if the districts consolidate, those departments operating within cities would be absorbed by the cities. "This would be disastrous, if the districts consolidated," Montgomery remarked.

OTHER CONCERNS expressed by various fire chiefs and commissioners ranged from fear of loss of volunteers, to a review of personalized public services that they believe would be lacking in a consolidated district.

Ninety per cent of the various district expenditures now go for salaries, according to Montgomery. Therefore, he added, it is difficult to see where any measurable amount of savings could be realized by consolidation.

Housing Pledge Campaign To Brotherhood Sunday

The drive for signatures in the Open Housing Covenant campaign will continue through Sunday, Brotherhood Sunday, in many churches, synagogues and community organizations of central Contra Costa County, according to the Reverend Walter Bishop, campaign chairman.

The Open Housing Covenant Committee, sponsoring the campaign, includes six local organizations. The Central Contra Costa County Council of Churches, The Catholic Interracial Council of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, the Mt. Diablo Unitarian Church, the Contra Costa Fair Play Council, and the Orinda Council for Civic Unity.

Campaign pledge cards were distributed at Protestant and Catholic churches in Concord, Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda last Sunday.

Phone Jingles At 9 a.m.; But It's Good News

Mrs. Ward Cockerton's want ad offering a chifferobe first appeared in the Sun Shopping News on Wednesday, and she sold it to the first caller at 9 a.m., Wednesday!

Mrs. Cockerton, a resident of 15 Margaret Drive, Walnut Creek, said she received seven more phone calls on the item.

Among the satisfied customers whose ads receive the "5-in-1" treatment is Mrs. R. A. McGovern of 1995 Reliez Valley Road, Lafayette, who offered a dinette table, chairs and other items.

She received more than 10 phone calls, and sold them all. The "5-in-1" treatment is your want ad's appearance for one price in the Sun Shopping News on Wednesday and the Walnut Creek Sun, Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun and Pleasant Hill Sun on Friday. The regular Sun is widely-read subscription papers.

Miramonte High Names Senior Merit Winners

Three seniors at Miramonte High School have been named finalists in the 1960-61 National Merit Scholarship Program competition and have been awarded certificates of merit.

Principal James A. Lewis announced that the following students have received the certificates which attest to their high academic promise: Steve Mullin, Douglas Saxton, David Wright.

The seniors attained finalist status by their distinguished performance on two tests and upon endorsement by their high school. About six-tenths of one per cent of the seniors in each state receive the awards. Approximately 9800 students in the 50 states and in U.S. territories were honored.

Volunteers Finish Roof on $100,000 Masonic Building

Finishing touches were put on the roof of the new Orinda Masonic Building, Altarinda Way, by volunteer workmen on Sunday.

The Masons hope to occupy the building by mid-summer. Construction was begun six months ago and has been carried on with the aid of many volunteers, both professionals and lay workers.

HAROLD ANDERSON, building committee chairman, announced that work could progress rapidly in the interior, now that the roof is in place. Anyone wishing to help may come any Saturday and Sunday. Both skilled workers, and those who just want to help will be welcomed.

An eventual $100,000 investment, the building will have a Lodge room, officers' dressing room, lounge, a dining room with stage, kitchen, cloak room and ladies lounge. Upon completion, part of the building including the kitchen and dining room facilities will be available to other groups for meetings and special events.

ORINDA MASONS have been meeting in the fellowship hall at the Orinda Community Church. With their own building nearing readiness, the Masons hope to increase their range and realize the formation of a DeMolay group in Orinda.

The building site on Altarinda Way has belonged to the Orinda Masons for five years. It has a 200 foot frontage and space behind the building to park 50 cars. Architect for the building is Wayne Littlejohn of Orinda.

Hats Off To...

John Harbell, Cubmaster, Serving Enthusiastically

A Scout salute to John Harbell of Orinda, truly representative of the fathers who give their constant attention to the success of the local Cub Scout program. Cubmaster for three years of Pack 212, John presides at the monthly meetings with a warmth and enthusiasm that is catching to other parents.

The family, who are outdoor enthusiasts, share further activities at the Y where the boys and their father belong to the "Y" Adventurer group as well as the Indian Guides.

A professor of economics, Dr. Harbell is chairman of the business division at San Francisco State College.

Bear Creek Solution Has Engineering for BH Road

Directors of East Bay Municipal Utility District have officially agreed to pay for engineering and construction of a non-controversial north-south road ("B1") east of the future Briones Reservoir.

And they will commit enough funds to pay for replacing Bear

Creek Road, which will be inundated by the reservoir, with another road equal to the cost of the proposed Black Hills Road, which runs south of the reservoir, will be chosen later, or "C route," which runs west of the reservoir, or some other route, has not been decided.

HOWEVER, another provision of the agreement is that the district will pay for engineering studies of the Black Hills Road, the route which has been staunchly opposed by leaders of the Sleepy Hollow Association and the Happy Valley Association.

Association leaders have claimed that the Black Hills Road selection would not be related in any way to the right future park development in the area.

In the meeting last Friday, Supervisor Mel Nielsen had misgivings about the provision for engineering of Black Hills Road.

He indicated that once engineering is completed on Black Hills Road, no one will be interested in choosing any other route.

HE ADDED that it is possible that "C route" would be the most logical in the future, and only

All Number Calling Will Reach Area In Autumn

Telephone numbers of the future will be introduced on a limited scale in five Bay Area communities later this year.

Pacific Telephone said that about 15,000 customers in Lafayette, Berkeley, San Jose, San Rafael and Los Altos will be the first locally to get All-Number Calling.

The new system, nicknamed ANC, is already in use by two and one-half million people in some 350 communities throughout the nation, including such larger cities as Chicago, Omaha and Atlanta.

IN NORTHERN California, telephone customers in a number of communities including Paso Robles, Grass Valley, Nevada City, Yountville and King

City have had ANC for some months.

ANC, as the name implies, simply substitutes numerals for alphabetical prefixes.

Pacific Telephone said the switch to ANC for Lafayette has been tentatively scheduled for September. AT 3 and AT 4 will change to 285 and 284 respectively. About 5200 customers are involved.

BELL SYSTEM scientists came up with ANC when it became evident several years ago that at the current rate of growth, the country would run out of telephone numbers unless some new method could be devised.

ANC will open up more calling combinations and provide enough numbers to take care of

John Kessler To Head Orinda Oaks Association

Members of the Orinda Oaks Association held an election meeting recently at the home of General and Mrs. William E. Lynd, 41 Claremont Avenue.

Approximately 20 home owners in the Orinda Oaks area elected the new officers for the year who are, John Kessler, president; Stan Johnson, vice president; Bernice Melrose, secretary; Peggy Carbone, treasurer.

Plans for the year include an April meeting featuring a guest speaker on tax assessment, a June meeting on Orinda planning, the annual cocktail party in September and an October meeting subject not yet determined.

The new officers hope that the slate for the year will help develop renewed interest in the association and help to unify community spirit.

Al Baer Makes Debut as Speaker

As a result of his interest in Peru, Al Baer, manager of the Village Shoe Shop, made his public speaking debut at a Concord school.

Baer, who imports llama slippers and rugs from Peru, has a friend whose daughter is studying about the country.

Upon hearing about this activity Baer gave the child a gift of Peruvian llama slippers and rug. The child took these items to school to show to her classmates.

Her teacher inquired if Baer could speak to the class about Peru.

Baer, whose interest in the country has led him to acquire considerable knowledge of it, responded happily—yes.

By such a way, a public speaking hobby begins.

Race Relations Is Panel Subject

Race relations will be the subject of a panel discussion to be held at the February meeting of the Orinda Council for Civic Unity. The panel will be composed of Rabbi David Robins of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, Father Corwin Calavan of St. Stephens Episcopal Church and Father E. J. Scallert S.J., professor of sociology at the University of San Francisco.

It is hoped that this second 90-day trial of a change in parking will prove the necessity for a bus turnout. Kermit believes there will be time after the change is effected and before the next hearing of the PUC for PUC officials to make a study of the situation and again recommend the highway division build a bus turnout.

PAUL VASHELL, an Orinda business man for 40 years, suggested that busses come on to Brookwood, turn at signal and let people off, then go back on the freeway. The chamber moved that the county be asked to consider Vashell's idea.

The chamber also went on record with a request that chamber representatives be present along with the county traffic engineer at future meetings of the Public Utility Commission.

In other business the chamber resolved to endorse the Orinda Fire Department's entry in the U.S. Chamber Fire Safety Contest; discussed use of reservoirs

Miramonte Orchestra Group Plans Meeting

The Miramonte Orchestra steering committee met last week at the home of Mrs. Robert Wale, chairman, to discuss plans for the formation of a friends of the Orchestra group. Those attending were Mesdames Martin White, Claude Maehler, Al S. Koch, John Mortarotti, and Horton Hill.

Plans were made for the organizational meeting of this booster group, to be held at Miramonte High School on February 27 at 8 p.m. A spokesman for the committee emphasized that all adults interested in music as well as par-

Chamber Approves Idea; Seeks Bus Turnout

By JEAN JERNIGAN

A plan to ease traffic congestion and speed the flow of vehicles through Orinda's business center was adopted Tuesday by the Orinda Chamber of Commerce and recommended to the county.

Mark Kermit, county traffic engineer said the plan would be put into effect as soon as the existing ordinance can be repealed, a new one passed and the curb markings and signs installed.

For a 90-day trial study period, diagonal parking on the west side of Moraga Highway will be changed from 45 degree angle parking to 60 degree angle parking.

PARKING on the east side of street will be parallel. This plan gives an additional traffic lane to the west side of the highway. At present there are 64 stalls on the east side. The change to parallel parking will mean a loss of three stalls daytimes and five at night.

Both Kermit and chamber members were doubtful if this plan would help matters appreciably. Kermit remarked, "At worst the plan will better traffic circulation. At best it would prove to the State Highway Division that a bus turnout on the freeway is needed."

Installation of the traffic signals at the intersection of Brookwood Road and Camino Pablo has further slowed the bus traffic through Orinda.

IN NOVEMBER, the highway division claimed diagonal parking not the busses, was the cause of the traffic clogging. At the request of the division of highways and the Public Utilities Commission, the county supervisors repealed Ordinance 958 and changed parking on the east side of Brookwood Road between Moraga Way and Camino Pablo from diagonal to parallel, allowing three lanes for operation.

At the same time parking was limited 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. except Sundays and holidays.

With the 90-day trial study of this arrangement, no great difference in the flow of traffic has been accomplished. The Public Utilities Commission, in November, recommended that a turnout for east bound busses be built on the freeway. The estimated cost, including a pedestrian footbridge was $60,000.

AT THAT TIME, J. P. Sinclair, District IV Engineer, Division of Highways, reported the state would not build the turnout unless the 90-day experiment in parallel parking was first tried.

The PUC would like to keep the busses on the freeway. Orinda business men would like to see the flow of traffic in Orinda move easily. Jack Snow of the Casa Orinda described the congestion around the restaurant near bus time. Tom Horton pointed out free traffic flow helps business.

It is hoped that this second 90-day trial of a change in parking will prove the necessity for a bus turnout. Kermit believes there will be time after the change is effected and before the next hearing of the PUC for PUC officials to make a study of the situation and again recommend the highway division build a bus turnout.

PAUL VASHELL, an Orinda business man for 40 years, suggested that busses come on to Brookwood, turn at signal and let people off, then go back on the freeway. The chamber moved that the county be asked to consider Vashell's idea.

The chamber also went on record with a request that chamber representatives be present along with the county traffic engineer at future meetings of the Public Utility Commission.

In other business the chamber resolved to endorse the Orinda Fire Department's entry in the U.S. Chamber Fire Safety Contest; discussed use of reservoirs

Rheem Zone Resolution Is Adopted

A proposal, initiated by the County Planning Commission, to rezone residential and business property in the Rheem area was adopted at Tuesday's meeting of the commission.

The area involved is all that is included in the Townsite of Rheem, Seefield Drive, Draeger Drive and portions of Rheem Boulevard and Donald Drive; in Rheem.

Prior to the rezoning, present single family lots in the area involved included some 10,000 square feet and some half acre sites. For single family lots the zoning has been changed from the R-10 classification which allowed these sizes to a R-15 classification which stipulates that all single family lots will forthwith be 15,000 square feet.

Regarding the business property rezoning, according to a spokesman from the planning commission the business property zoning in the affected area was somewhat reduced and the existing zoning lines adjusted.

Yo Yo Winners Are Announced

Winners of the yo yo contest for fifth grade and up in the Orinda Schools have been announced by Frank Isola, contest coordinator.

A boy and a girl champion were chosen at each school. First, second and third place winners are named in order—Jackie Singer, Del Rey; Michelle Moran, Sleepy Hollow, and Randy Ayres tied with Connie Calhoun, Orinda School.

The winners among the boys are John Ferguson, Sleepy Hollow; Greg Bedayn, Glorieta, tied with John Heller, Orinda; and Mike Shepherd, Del Rey.

Alan Odleberg of Inland Valley School won his school's championship for the boys. Through no fault of his own, Alan was not included in the district-wide finals. Isola said the youngster would have had a good chance at winning.

In the Classroom...

Del Rey: Elections

Mrs. O'Dea's sixth grade class has just completed election of class officers.

The class is divided into two parties, the Del Rey Congress and the Orindians. Each party nominated a slate of candidates a week before the election.

THE DEL REY Congress proposed Rod Hoffman for president; Jack Bowers for vice president; Bill Schmidt for secretary and Judy Rolley for treasurer.

Orindian candidates were Julie Anderson, president; Stuart Myers, vice president; Scott Simmon, secretary and Marshall Snover, treasurer.

DURING the week before the election a forum was held by the class with Dennis Wisgerhof acting as chairman. The candidates presented the programs they planned to effect if elected. Questions from the floor could be directed to any candidate.

Voting was by secret ballot in a booth constructed by members of the class. In a close contest the Del Rey Congress slate emerged the victors.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Rain On The Roof . . .

A STACK OF GOOD BOOKS, a carafe of coffee, a pile of pillows plumped up on the sofa & a place in front of the picture window on a rainy drizzly day . . .

A BEADED silver curtain of raindrops falling from the eaves, a film of fog veiling the village below . . . & here inside, w/the chattering bird, Mary Martin's SOUND OF MUSIC (my favorite album) both ringing to the rafters, furnace on & fire lit, I'm content . . . But not for long. My son is in bed w/swollen throat & while he sleeps, MOTHER will take on his paper route.

AT LEAST I can do it by car. ONE of my favorite friends, a very distinguished & handsome mother who wears her blonde hair like Rapunzel in lush thick braids, has taken on the paper route of her son for the sheer LOVE of it.

She likes the early morning walk, up & out before anybody else, swings along at a rapid healthy pace, newsbag slung over her shoulder. After a month's experience (& she honestly ENJOYS it) she has become a real sure-shot aiming her papers well. ONLY once has she had to sneak back pre-dawn to patch up a fence she fell through one frosty morning.

TRYING TO PICTURE this paragon of womanhood on a paper route has always amused me . . . & now I'm IT! Tomorrow my son will find a substitute. If the terrain were level & I could walk, instead of drive, I wouldn't mind.

I MISS WALKING . . . In New York we could clip off 50 blocks in no time but out here in the country community its another story. The only trail I can take to without turning purple is the hike from Village to Crossroads & then just try to find the time to do it!

OUT THE WINDOW . . . a flock of birds flecking the sky (there must be a hundred of them) on their migratory flight. This means Spring is almost here.

AN IRIDESCENT STREAK of blue jets by the rain-washed glass, a big bluejay w/a piece of our leftover breakfast toast in his beak (We put it out on the top floor window sill . . .) ONE of the many squirrels that live in our woods scampers up the old oak limb that rises straight up in front of the window, cocks his head in little staccato motions & scouts for his storage.

ANOTHER SCHOOL BUS rolls by & the rainy day traffic downhill is thick w/hauling mothers taking the tykes to school so they won't get wet . . . Whatever happened to galoshes, umbrellas & most of all, HATS? . . . Very few boys cover their heads anymore & the price of such vanity is usually a long-lasting head cold or earache.

When we were children there was no choice in the matter. We simply put on the headgear that mother had available & no arguments! Usually the kind of hats with ear flaps, far from glamorous, & off we tromped to school in rubber boots that felt like freight trains on our feet. JUST to get children into raincoats these days is a wrestling match. Some are even averse to sweaters & jackets . . . or haven't you looked at the bus lines lately?

RAINY DAY PATTERN . . . Thelma Harney, whose weakness is hats & HATS, looked like a Spring jonquil last Sunday, her head swathed in a spiraling turban of jonquil-yellow chiffon!

Another glance out the window & the garden's first daffodils which just opened their beautiful faces, already prostrated by the pelting raindrops, now rubbing their little yellow noses in the earth . . . Crocus leaves swording upwards & the silly flowering currant defying the frost & blossoming in pink lacey globules, first time its burst forth in YEARS!

The green hills just coming into their short-lived vernal softness . . . Enjoy them when you can, for in California they turn oatmeal brown before you know it . . . Nowhere is Mother Earth more beautifully formed than right here in our vale & valleys & the hills are prettiest now carpeted in mottled patterns of wild mustard flower.

SUNDAY SIGHTS: Ted Behr & his half brother Mark riding double horseback down El Toyonal . . . Valentines disappearing fast from the store counters & husband in the main, poring over the card selection w/a rather desperate look in their eyes as they mutter the verses to themselves (they want to get the feel of what the cards will say for them?) . . . Both the Post Office & the card counters evidence that nothing will ever replace romance!

Grab Bags & Glad Rags . . .

EVERY WOMAN loves a bargain so it's no wonder that the Granddaddy of all local Rummage Sales is already a sweeping success.

This is the annual shopping-sprees of "sorts" conducted by women of the Santa Maria Church in the big parish hall at the top of the hill on Santa Maria Way.

IF YOU'VE ever shopped at S. Kleins on 14th St. in NYC, or attended one of the Larkin Hall sales in SF, you'll have a good idea of what's going on, that is, if you can possibly be one of those who've never gone in for the good pickings & the deep diggings.

YOU DO HAVE to work at it . . . although this year Marcella Byrnes & Tillie Lucas have it set up better than ever before . . . Racks of men's suits, boys' & girls' clothes, women's dresses, coats, all on individual racks.

IF YOU NEED A BUGGY for Baby, there were three of them on hand last week, all in excellent condition . . . Besides books, bric-a-brac, the usual rummage items, there are always the unusual ice skates, skis, a porcelain pot (the English call it a "jerry") which can always be planted.

ONE mother thrilled to pick up almost-perfect white Spalding saddles for fifty cents for her ten-yr. old dgtr. . . Ladies loading boxes full of perfectly good practical items like children's pajamas, shirts, dresses . . . some need only a good wash & starching to restore their newness.

BUT ONE WORD OF WARNING . . . If you go up there for the first time, remember that anything you are wearing, if removed (like a sweater) & laid down, may be snatched up as a "bargain." More people have lost their hats & coats (just temporarily) while carried away w/the bargains.

FOR YOUR convenience, the hall will be open daily 10-4 w/ plenty of parish women on hand to assist you, ONLY if you want some help in hunting specific items. Rummage is still being received through March so if you're cleaning closets, take a load along!

SHOPPING TIPS . . . JEANS, some weary a rip or tear, selling for a nickel a pair . . . A passel of pretty hats, some in good

A FINE FAMILY, the John Detmolds of 65 Diablo View Road, are recent newcomers to Orinda. Humanities Seminar Off To Enthusiastic Start

The first meeting of the new Humanities Seminar was held recently at Miramonte High School. This marked the culmination of much planning by many interested parents in the community under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Leland, who has organized the program.

This community-sponsored program is available to any interested student at the high school, and 75 have signed up to date. Each Wednesday evening they will meet for two hours and explore the many fields of the humanities with volunteer adults from the community.

THE FIRST hour will feature lectures by outstanding authorities in different areas, and the second hour will be devoted to discussion in small groups with adult leaders.

Donald Fleming is program committee chairman and will secure lecturers. Dr. William Hilger is coordinator of adult discussion leaders, and Mrs. Richard Leland is administration committee chairman.

This program is modeled after enough condition for church—or cocktailing! A few original designer-label dresses going for $1 up . . . and furniture—

Old and New . . . some of the stock brand new donated by local merchants or department stores . . . crinoline petticoats, corodury hats, peterpan pique collars (ten cents!)

JUST TO SHOW THE GALS what IS available some of the parish women put on their annual "Garb-Gasser" at last Tuesday's Santa Maria Women's Club meet . . .

Decked out and dolled up in the duds (and we do DO mean DUDS!) the little show was hysterical, as well as historical, depending on the circa of each selection . . .

ORINDA'S ANSWER to Mae West was Gigi (Beatrice) Blessing in a vintage floral and floor-length gown, this wonderful lady who once worked the Vaudeville circuit in New York, ambling across stage dripping with jewels, gems looking like a Belle from The Bowery.

ALL IN GOOD FUN . . . and pun were Betty's introductions . . . with curly-que black fake eyelashes, a red satin gown and swooshing a white fox furpiece, Helen McPherson took on the appearance of a taxi-dancer from the old Crescent Ballroom . . . Gina Lucas giving it the Gloria Swanson in her get-up while Fern Walton's fashionable rummage ensemble was described as the Edgar Allen Poe version of DIOR.

In rag-curlers, nightcap, mother-hubbard nightie and chenille robe, blonde meticulous Mary Rushforth looked like the forlorn frau of Come Back, Little Sheba . . . but Thelma Harney wearing net petticoats cape and tunic fashion over turquoise lounging pajamas and sporting a Japanese parasol managed somehow to look like the latest from VOGUE.

A MAU-MAU from a LUAU" was Tillie Lucas in a flower-festooned coco straw and a wild Hilo Hattie print and doing a duet of comic relief (?) was Gerry Fish with Louise Malone playing the Straight Man, who was stripped down to her Basic Black of clothes she was trying to hide and his off with worn under her own coat.

SPEAKER OF THE EVENING, cook-book author Barbara I. Gillard ("Note what my initials spell out," she smiled) started her delightful talk by modeling her own tweed coat for the audience. She wanted to be sure, she told her audience who were surrounded by rummage racks in the parish hall, that everyone got to know her coat intimately so that there was no chance it would be mistaken for rummage.

THE PETITE peppy lecturer who had us laughing WITH her all the way through the Trials and Tribulations of getting Published, is the author of four handy spiral cookbooks, the first of which was her "baby" on hors d'oeuvres called "PASS ME ANOTHER" . . . or How To Rival Your Husband At The Cocktail Table.

IT'S SLICK cover of a slice of Swiss Cheese is a funny story in itself. Seems just to get a simple sample copy off the press costs her $40 for the first slice of Swiss . . . The little cookbooks have as much eye appeal as their contents have gourmet-gastronomical appeal and we've picked up several at PHAIR's for gifts . . . either alone or as tuck-ins for a salad-bowl set or pepper mill present. See for yourself.

THE GOOD-HUMORED Mrs. Gillard, who is the wife of an attorney who held her hand through all the phases of becoming a book author, had some wonderful true stories on the Helen Hopkins-type happenings that a lady lecturer has to put up with. BUT she gave OUR audience an A-plus . . . which in my language stands for Appreciation. Heartily recommend her as a speaker for your group. Your cheeks will be sore from smiling out loud.

THE VERY enjoyable monthly meet ended with highly-caloric cream cherry tarts and coffee . . . and the last glimpse we had of the Good Ladies was Gerry Fish riding a Velocipede (a big 3-wheeled trike in GOOD condition, or at least it WAS) around the parish hall.

Yo Yo Champs To 'Shop' Free In Minute Spree

Skilled yo yo twirlers, junior size, will have the opportunity of a life time next Saturday, when they are turned loose in Sprouse Reitz for one full minute in the toy department.

The youngsters may have, free, all they can grab and carry in their arms, during the one-minute spree. Boxes will be placed outside the door at Sprouse Reitz, and the shopping spree may well take on the aspects of a relay.

IF A CHILD can operate with sufficient speed, he can take all he can carry, deposit the toys in a box and go back for more.

The one-minute toy treat is an annual event, held in conjunction with the yo yo tournament conducted each February in the Orinda schools, sponsored by the Duncan Yo Yo Company in co-operation with the school district.

This week and next, youngsters in grades four and down are competing in yo yo contests at grade schools in Orinda. Ten finalists, a boy and a girl from each school, will compete next week to determine the grand champion.

The two winners, one boy and one girl, will climax their championship with the shopping spree at Sprouse Reitz. The time is 11 a.m., the date, February 25.

Shop-at-Home and Save!

If you should phone Paris, London, or elsewhere in Western Europe in the next two or three years, there's a good chance your call might go by way of a satellite. That's how fast things are happening in Bell System experiments with communication satellites.

A network of 50 satellites might someday bring you live TV from anywhere on earth as well as carry phone calls.

Our engineers hope to have the first of these satellites in experimental use before the end of the year.

The skills and knowledge called for in this pioneer activity also provide you with the finest telephone service in the world.

"BROWNIES VISIT TELEPHONE OFFICE"

The "Valley Troop 36" of the brownies recently visited our office at 1714 Colfax, Concord. Ross "Bud" Rogers of our staff in Concord is shown explaining some of the complex equipment to them. They were told how the equipment handles calls automatically to and from our surrounding areas. They also saw operators routing calls on our switchboards.

Many other groups, boy scouts, cub scouts, and fraternal organizations have enjoyed visits to our Concord Office. We would like to invite your group to visit our office and see how telephone calls are handled and get better acquainted with behind-the-scenes activities of a typical, busy telephone office. To arrange for a visit, please contact us at YE 5-9000.

Three Burglaries Reported

The Sheriff's Substation in Lafayette reported three burglaries and two thefts from automobiles took place in the past seven-day period.

Homes were ransacked in two of the burglaries and the other was a dry cleaning establishment in Pleasant Hill.

Donald Cook, 22, a Concord electrician, and Stanley Ehrenclou of Palo Alto had equipment taken from their parked cars.

Cook was attending night class at Diablo Valley College last week when his car was entered and his tool box taken from the floor of the back seat.

HE COULD not estimate the value of the tools, but said they were all of his electrician's equipment.

Ehrenclou, an electronic design salesman, reported to deputies that someone entered his car while he was eating dinner at Petar's Restaurant Saturday night.

He did not notice his bag and attache case were missing until he arrived in Pleasanton.

A $400 transistorized portable tape recorder and many of his papers were in the two pieces of luggage.

A BURGLARY was reported at 213 Alamos Drive in Danville, where the residents were vacationing in Monterey.

Phonograph, records, two watches and luggage were taken. The Marshall Steel Company dry cleaning office at 1870½ Oak Park Boulevard was entered last Friday evening and $25 taken from the cash drawer.

The office was entered by prying open large sliding plywood panels that connects the office with a 24-hour automatic laundromat.

All drawers and files were forced open and ransacked. Nothing but the money was taken, deputies reported. The owner thought all the clothes were still there although many were thrown on the floor.

Louis Juarez, 39, and Robert P. Sorensen, 38, of 2451 Warren in Walnut Creek reported to the sheriff's office that their residence had been burglarized last Saturday night or early Sunday while they were away.

WHEN they arrived home Sunday they found all the doors to the house open and the house completely ransacked.

More than $200 worth of phonograph records were taken, along with men's jewelry, electric appliances and a variety of clothes, including suits and sport coats.

It did not appear that any door or window was forced, deputies said.

Several cases of mischief, probably by youngsters, were reported in the Orinda area the first of this week.

The most serious of these was destruction of mail reported by George A. Richard of 45 Monte Vista Road.

Acalanes High School Bonds Pass Four-One

A comfortable 4-1 margin put the proposed $3.9 million bond issue and $750,000 state loan of the Acalanes High School District over the top Tuesday.

There were 6390 yes votes and 1591 no votes for the bond issue. There were 6293 yeses and 1565 noes in the state loan tallies.

All 19 precincts exceeded the required two-thirds majority.

Several pieces of mail which he had left for the postman were found Monday torn in little pieces and burned. One contained a $14 check, the others were income tax forms and personal letters.

RICHARD Broderick of 2 Camino Don Miguel reported that his mailbox was completely destroyed last Sunday night.

Elizabeth Weber of 61 Sleepy Hollow Lane reported that a lamp post at her driveway entrance was completely ruined when struck by a large object, possibly a rock.

Jack Buchter, 49, an architect of 1 Weather Lane, said his plant was worth $50.

Highest percentage was 90.5 per cent in the Del Rey School vicinity, and lowest was 68.4 per cent in Walnut Heights School area.

The bond issue will finance a new high school and additions to four existing schools during the next five years.

The state loan will provide cash for site acquisition.

Slumber Parties, Skiing All Part of Weekend Fun

By SUSAN COX and CAROL PEDERSEN

Happy Birthday Mr. Lincoln!!! We Teens celebrated your birthday in many ways this last week-end.

A few boys were really surprised Saturday morning when a thundering group of girls sprung forth at 4 a.m. Yelling Shanghai!!!

Roz Starkman held a slumber party for all girls involved in the activity, only the girls didn't get much slumbering done! The girls were Roz Starkman, Jan Miller, Karen Weatherby, Pam Person, Nancy Englehard, Tina Cole, Pam Dermitt (Grandma), Mary Moorehead, Sharon Croci, and Connie Cook and the boys were Randy Corsi, Doug Hudson, Bill Kent, Greg Peterson, Dick Stark, Rick Layne, Pete Yedidia, Bob Welch, Andy Degrassi, and Tom Ferguson.

IN POURING rain the girls made attempts to wake the boys. Somebody by the name of Rick Layne just couldn't wake up and for at least 20 minutes everyone tried and after much struggle, cold water finally did the trick.

Pete Yedidia woke up swinging. How do you feel Pam? We hope he didn't hurt you much. Tom Ferguson was the only one who took long in dressing and finally after everyone was collected, breakfast was served at the Pancake Queen in Oakland.

Later on that morning Pam Dermitt and Pete Yedidia, Sharon Croci and Andy Degrassi made their way to Santa Cruz and spent a delightful day in the sun.

LINDA BARGONES and Corbit Croll, Pat Canfield and Vol Howard, Judy Courtwright and Jim Cambell enjoyed a delightful evening at the Lake Merritt Hotel for dinner and dancing Friday night.

Linda was surprised when she drank her water and found that someone had put salt in it. Could that someone be Corbit? A good cha-cha show was given by Judy and Jim for entertainment.

Life is full of surprises says Wendy Shuey. Mimi tells us about her many adventures of living on a ranch and of all the fun she is having.

Last Saturday night Bill Powell opened his home and gave a party. Some of those attending were Bob Boyle and Mary Baker, Rich Lyman and Cindy Snell, Sue Schilling and Robin Wilson, Mario Albo and Sharon Cambell, Jack Gilbert and Connie Cook, Sharon Nelson and John Riely, also Bill Powell and Chris Cambell.

BIRTHDAY TIME: Joyce Odenthal, February 15, and Ann Blow, also a February girl.

Sunday night another slumber party was given by Jane White. The girls were Ann Lincoln, Nancy Bregar, Nancy Englehard, Roz Starkman, Wendy Wilcox, Mary Baker, Sharon Nelson, Joann Scholburg, Kitty Mika and others. Around 8 a.m. the girls ate breakfast at the Pancake Queen in Oakland.

SKIING THRILLS and spills were experienced last week-end when Sally Holibird and Kathy Stafford, Lynn Bickerstaff and Joann Hall, Joyce Odenthal, Charlet Kimball and Ann Blow arrived at resorts up in the Sierras.

On February 22 the Alanthas will present their fashion show at the Happy Valley Inn. Some of the outstanding models are Robert Boyle, Peter Read, Andy Degrassi and Sandy Corbit.

Inland Valley Parents Plan Lunch, Card Party

"Blossom Time", a salad luncheon and card party will be held March 15 from 12 to 3:30 p.m. at the Inland Valley Multi-purpose room.

Reservations will be accepted from February 22 to March 12 by Mesdames A. K. Flanagan, Richard Bartle and Marvin Yost. CL 4-3129. Tickets are $1.50 per person and although table reservations are encouraged, single reservations will gladly be taken.

Mrs. Edward A. Patterson and Mrs. Edward F. Winthens, co-chairmen of the Luncheon, announce the following committee chairman: Tickets-Reservations, Mrs. A. K. Flanagan; Decorations, Mrs. Raymond Kline; Food and Equipment, Mrs. J. F. Hedtke and Mrs. Edward Patterson; Ticket-Tally, Mrs. William East-erly; Publicity, Mrs. E. F. Winthens. All Inland Valley Room-mothers will act as hostesses that day.

Mrs. Easterly and her committee are making the combined ticket and tally. Mrs. Kline is working on a spring theme for the table and room decorations.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to support this ways and means project. Canasta or bridge will be played after lunch or for those who prefer, just a friendly chat. Luncheon will include a variety of salads served buffet style, rolls, dessert and coffee.

Spring Shoots Show, Weeds Grow Like Mad!

By YVONNE MAUZEY
DR 6-4083

Did your "One and Only" send you a Valentine or your hearts desire for Valentines day?

Abe Lincoln's birthday and Valentines day have passed. Spring is here, and the weeds are eating us alive. Creeping like a Frankenstein's monster to pounce upon any unclaimed section of soil.

The plants and the ivy are putting out tiny new shoots, trying to push through the tangled mass of weeds. I have been weeding for three and a half days and there is still more weeding to do. The weeds almost grow faster than I can clean them out.

SHIRLEY and Jim Frey are a couple of Moragans who will not have to worry about the weeds for they are being transferred back to Dalton, Ill., within 50 miles of where they came from a year ago.

This is a big disappointment to the Freys for they are a popular couple and have made many friends in the area, and they love our California weather. But Kaiser calls so they must answer. Jim and Shirley will be leaving our area, their lovely home and many friends about March 1st.

Shirley's leaving will leave the Moraga Parents Club Recording secretary's job open. The Club will have to have an election to fill this job.

WE HAVE another new addition to the Orchard Dell population. We have been doing alright with an average of one new baby a week. Our newest addition James Dalkey Smith is unique, for he was born with his two lower front teeth intact.

The doctors are debating what to do, if they are the baby teeth, permanent teeth or a third set that should be pulled now. Dolores and Jim Smith are the proud parents of this new boy, born February 3 at the Alameda Hospital, weighing in at 7 pounds, 12 ounces.

RUBY PAGLIERO is still in Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek at this writing, hoping to come home soon. Ruby went in for one day, she has been there a week. Her lung collapsed and they are giving her oxygen to inflate the lung. The doctor will not let her leave until he is sure the lung will stay inflated. We hope she is well and will be home soon. We all miss her.

MORAGA RANCH Swim Club collections are coming along fine according to the President, Bob DeJohn. They hope to start breaking ground this week or next. The pool should be finished in May, and we will all be in the swim.

CHARLES TOLL informs me the construction on the new Camino Pablo school is 38 per cent complete. The wall panels are ready to be lifted into place. These wall panels have a beautiful finish of textured rock and stone.

THE LUMBER has been delivered for the roof framing and progress on the building should really move for the next month as the walls go up and the roof goes on. Then comes the last long period of inside finishing. Our new school should be completed in June ready to start the fall session in September.

THE BOARD will open bids for the furniture and equipment for the eight classrooms, administration offices, and library of the Camino Pablo School March 6.

There has been much hassel and many questions asked the board about the proposed school split for the September session. There was no decision made at the last board meeting. The board is now looking into the transportation end of this situation.

The Stanford Report was given by Ira Ralston on the Long Range Planning of future school locations. What size school should we build, 450, six, eight, or nine hundred pupils?

THE SITES to acquire to provide for approximately 650 students. The terrain in our valley is such that sites in excess of ten acres are very hard to find. The Rheem school is 10 acres and the Camino Pablo school is eight.

THE STANFORD people feel that we should be thinking of a school site, centrally located to house the seventh and eighth grade children of the area after we have four K-6 schools.

The architect of the Camino Pablo School is considering a walking path to school ground via Freitas Drive, stairs up the hillside and a path across the school yard.

BOB AMBER brought the curriculum study report to the teachers and principal for additions to questions or changes for clarification. WE NOW have another election to think of April 18 for the cation of ideas and purposes.

Then elections will be held every other year. Anyone interested in running in this election be sure to file early.

THE PAGLIERANT'S of Wandel Drive, have had a nice vacation. Ruth and her husband took a trip to Hawaii and vacationed in the tropical sun. Then returned home for a few days. Then the whole family took a trip to Old Mexico.

Rose and Ivan Clark are planning to leave our area in March to go to Seattle, where Ivan has been transferred.

Lafayette PTA Awards Honorary Life Memberships

Two honorary life memberships were awarded by the Lafayette School PTA at the annual Founder's Day celebration February 8.

Honored for their work in behalf of children and youth in the community were Mrs. Robert Cub Scout Pack 57 took a trip to San Francisco to tour the Safeway Coffee plant, Monday. This is a processing and warehouse plant. The boys spent the morning following each phase of the operation of coffee making, and came home with a sample package of the coffee. The Cubs took their lunches and left via bus from Miramonte. They ate their lunches on the bus coming home.

BETH KLATT'S Den 7 has been spending their time on decorations for the Blue and Gold Dinner, making place mats, place cards, or name tags for mother, father and boy. Each den is doing their own decorations for the table and place settings. There will be prizes for the best. The menu will be a casserole, two salads, french bread, and cake.

The 10 year house to house survey for the Stanford group should soon be under way. It is being organized much like a March of Dimes, with Block Mothers, Captains, etc. This will be conducted by you or your neighbors with a questionnaire asking the number of children in your family, their ages and whether they will go to public or private schools.

This survey is to benefit in the planning of new schools and the prediction of class size, teachers and space needed. If you would like to work on this committee contact Marie Wright or Margaret Harlow.

eras from 1897 to 1961 recalled poignant memories and exclamations of, "Did we wear that!" were heard. Program chairman, Mrs. John Doane, narrated highlights from by-gone days in the history of PTA.

In the audience was Mrs. Clara Christian, first principal of Lafayette School. Mrs. Christian who met in 1922 with 15 mothers to form the school's present PTA. A contrast is the almost one hundred per cent membership of 540 parents today.

Now at last, you don't have to feel hungry while dieting. If your present reducing plan leaves you "half starved" between meals, lacking the vitality you want and need, with feelings of mental and physical exhaustion... there's a new, easy-to-follow, low-calorie diet just for you!

Recommended by leading nutritionists, it ends the unpleasantness so often associated with dieting—and the discouraging tendency to regain lost weight. It even lets you enjoy many of the foods you like best. This new diet features a glass of whole milk at each meal... and provides the staying qualities that low-calorie reducing plans of the past have lacked.

The old approach was to lower the fat intake to a minimum and keep the carbohydrate level moderate. The new diet, however, is high in protein, moderate in fat and low in carbohydrates, reflecting latest nutritional thinking.

There is just no need for you to suffer through an unworkable reducing program. If you want to shed unwanted weight in a sensible, pleasant manner, write today for a free menu series that will enable you to lose up to two pounds a week. Students, Parents Demand More Counseling; Program Is Expanded

Trustees of the Acalanes High School District this week took action to provide additional time for counseling of students, expand counseling services to students and parents, and appointed a head counselor at Del Valle High School.

Following the recommendation of Superintendent Neil M. Parsons, the board approved the reduction of the number of students for which each counselor is responsible by increasing the allotment of school periods of counseling time in each high school by approximately five periods a day.

In recommending this action, Superintendent Parsons said, "The need for additional counseling time in our guidance program has become apparent as students and parents have made increasing demands for this type of service."

THE BOARD also approved the employment of a district counselor to supplement the psychological services provided by Dr. Robert Wendorf, district guidance consultant.

The district counselor is to work with students needing long term, intensive counseling, and to coordinate home, school, and community relations.

Joseph Anthony, counselor at Las Lomas High School, was appointed as head counselor at Del Valle High School for the next school year. Del Valle will enroll three classes of students in 1961-62, and will become a full four year high school in 1962-63.

Church Guild Will Sponsor Cancer Films

Two films which can save the lives of viewers will be shown at Orinda Community Church next Friday at 8:30 p.m., sponsored by the church guild Circle No. 2. Because of the importance of the information, the showing will be open to the public, according to Mrs. J. K. Russell, 126 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda, chairman.

The films are "Time and Two Women" and "Breast Self-Examination," which together with "how-to" leaflets to take home, plus a question and answer period to be led by Dr. C. M. Van Duyn of Orinda, can alert every woman against these common forms of cancer, one of which can be virtually eliminated today with proper care.

The program is arranged through the cooperation of the Contra Costa Branch of the American Cancer Society.

Methodists Break Building Crusade Goal

The Methodist church, St. Mark's, went over the top of their $25,000 building crusade goal on Sunday, according to John Switack, building crusade chairman.

The young church, which now meets at Miramonte High School, plans to build a $75,000 church on Moraga Highway just south of the Fire Station. St. Mark's will celebrate its first year's charter in Orinda on March 6.

Plans are now being developed for a first unit on the 6½ acre site which will include a chapel, educational and fellowship facilities. The master plan calls for a series of campuslike buildings placed among open gardens.

Charles McCoy, 11 Mariposa, is in charge of the church planning, and he has announced that plans will be presented to members of the church in a short while.

Brotherhood Is Sabbath Theme

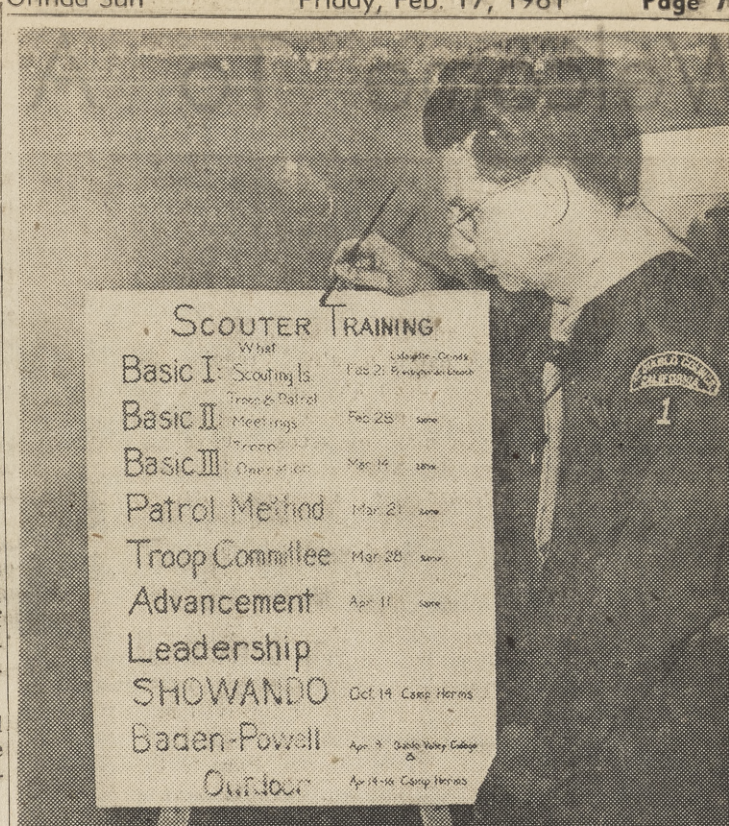

Brotherhood Sabbath will be observed at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, 3800 Mt. Diablo Blvd. this evening at 8:30.

Rabbi David Robins' sermon will be "Sit Down, You're Rocking the Boat." Cantor Henri Goldberg, assisted by the center choir, will officiate, with Harriet Daneiko soprano soloist and Shirley Moore at the organ.

A SOCIAL hour sponsored by the League of Jewish Women will follow.

A special musicale will be presented at the center on February 25 at 8:15 p.m. in celebration of Jewish music month, which will be observed all over the country.

Cantor Henri Goldberg and Fred Katzburg, chairman of the adult education committee, are in charge of arrangements.

SPRING SCOUTER training events will begin Tuesday at the Lafayette Orinda Presbyterian Church for leaders, assistants, and parents in the Or La Mo District. Jack Stellar, leadership training chairman, checks over a poster describing events. —Sun photo by Erwin Mattson.

Spring Scouter Training Series Will Begin Tuesday

A Spring Scouter Training series will begin Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Orinda-Lafayette Presbyterian Church for leaders and scout parents in the Or La Mo District, Boy Scouts of America.

The training series includes all Scout training given by the district (except "Leadership," which will be scheduled later) and is planned to coordinate with the Council Baden-Powell Outdoor course.

JACK STELLAR, chairman, leader training committee, announced the objectives of the training program are: "To acquaint all scout parents with scouting so that they can help intelligently and their boys can get the most from their activities."

"To give all leaders, committeemen, scoutmasters, assistants and potential leaders the knowledge and confidence necessary to do their job effectively and in a minimum of time."

"To generate enthusiasm for an active, challenging scout program which utilizes all the helps available to leaders."

"TO PROVIDE each troop with a knowledgeable manpower reserve so that the program can always proceed at full speed."

Stellar explained that the training program will be organized like a troop composed of a number of training patrols. Each patrol will consist of about eight adults from one or two regular troops. Distinctive insignia will be presented to those who complete several training events.

The spacious room welcomes guests, yet retains the atmosphere of home for family fun.

Word Gap Separating People

How today's primitive language habits widen the gap between our lagging civilization and leaping technological advances will be discussed by the Contra Costa Chapter of the International Institute for General Semantics to-night at 8 at Diablo College, Room 217.

Former county school superintendent B. O. Wilson of Walnut Creek will be moderator of the film entitled "The Difference of Words and Things" and the evening's discussion.

The public is invited to attend the free showing of the Dr. Irving Lee film.

The film further indicates how grammar warps thinking.

Wilson is the chairman of the Central Mental Health Association, a United Crusade Agency; instructor of education at St. Mary's College, and president of the Walden Improvement Association.

A workshop on "Communications and Family Relationships" is being planned by the Chapter for March 3 and March 4.

Association Includes 5 Counties

The Association of Bay Area Governments, recently formed, includes Contra Costa County, four other counties and some 50 cities within.

Purpose is to study metropolitan problems of government.

The approval of San Mateo County supervisors qualified the association under the law which has minimum bylaw requirements for creation within the nine-county Bay Area.

The association will provide a "forum" where elected officials can draft recommendations for solving problems of government.

It is expected to have more influence than statutory power.

It has been predicted that San Francisco and Sonoma Counties may join the association, although there has been opposition there.

In Contra Costa County, 10 cities have joined. Only Antioch and Crockett have declined.

Central Morgue Wanted; Death Figures Offered

A recommendation that a central morgue be established in the new Martinez Community Hospital at Grayson and Taylor Roads was made in his annual report by County Coroner Dr. L. H. Fraser.

Fraser presented his report to the board of supervisors, noting that the hospital may be completed in two years.

If the plan is adopted, the morgue facilities would be provided to the county on a lease basis, Fraser said.

THE MORGUE would be centrally located in the county, and would serve all areas but Brentwood.

The supervisors referred the recommendation to County Administrator J. P. McBrien.

Fraser's report that 221 traumatic (injury or violence) deaths and 387 non-traumatic deaths in the county during 1960.

Some 540 autopsies were performed, and 593 investigations were made.

WALNUT Creek has 69 deaths—Lafayette had 21, Orinda 17, Pleasant Hill 10, Danville 8, Alamo 3, Moraga and Diablo, each 1 death.

Throughout the county, there were 10 homicides, including eight by gunshot, one each by knife and strangling.

Seven men and three women were victims. One case was in Walnut Creek; the rest were not in the central county.

There were 54 suicides in the county, including by order of frequency gunshot, hanging, carbon monoxide, barbiturates, cyanide poisoning, arsenic poisoning, choralhydrate poisoning, plastic bag, cut wrists, jumped off bridge, jumped from overpass to freeway.

MOST OF them were in their 50s and 60s, and most of them were men. About 10 were from this area.

There were 81 traffic fatalities, most of them from the collision of two passenger cars.

There were seven industrial deaths in the county, and most of them (6) were in Orinda. There were 11 drownings, but none local.

Burns caused 15 deaths, and falls another nine.

MISCELLANEOUS deaths included one fatality from choking on an Easter egg, others from electrocution, asphyxiation, strangling, choking on meat, entombment, brain damage. Richmond accounted for most of these.

Heart diseases were high on the list of non-traumatic deaths, and there were 182 men and 69 women. Most of them were in their 60s, 70s and 80s.

Lung problems are listed separately, and 59 died. Most of them were male, and most of them under one year old or very young.

Leukemia took one person; malnutrition another; acute alcoholism three and chronic alcoholism six.

Development Ass'n Backs New Group

Two committees of the Contra Costa County Development Association have voted to support the Board of Supervisors' sponsorship of the proposed California National Resources Development Association.

Their recommendations to the association's directors will be presented by chairmen at a meeting next Tuesday.

The Industrial Service and Industrial Development Committee, headed by V. A. Fink and Jack O. Fries endorsed the statewide association at recent meetings and urged active support of the program by leaders in industry, agriculture, labor and recreation.

Plans for the proposed association, which is designed to campaign for orderly development of the $1.75 billion State Water Plan in order to protect the interests of counties of origin and the San Joaquin-Sacramento Delta Region, were explained to the Industrial Service Committee by Hal Cruzan, San Francisco publicist.

Cruzan has been working with a group of Northern California lawmakers, headed by Sen. Stephen Teale of West Point and Sen. George Miller Jr. of Martinez, in formulating policy for the proposed association. Cruzan's report was relayed to the other committee by Fink.

C. P. Tanner of Oakland, president, will preside at the directors' meeting, set for 7:30 p.m. at the association's board room.

Rheem Bridge Club Tells Scores

Bridge scores from the Rheem Center Bridge Club from last Wednesday's play starting at 7:45 p.m. at the Rheem Bowl are as follows:

North-South, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Merriam, 99; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mason, 97; Mr. and Mrs. Don Schulte, 94.

East-West, Leila Mason and Claire Farkasch, 108; Sidney Cox and Lloyd Patton, 104; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Flood, 98.

Pear Blight, Pear Rust, Pear Decline, They Are Killing Our Precious Trees!

Pears in the central county are having a tough time. For years, almost all areas have had some "pear blight," sometimes called "fire blight," where the pear and its stem turn dark brown, as though it were burned with a blowtorch.

Then there are two newer developments which have local pear tree owners and also the big pear tree growers in California and other states really worried.

ONE IS "pear rust," which principally bothers pear trees in the Lafayette area so far.

County Agriculture Commissioner Arthur Seeley is testing a new spray which may be effective with only one application instead of five.

A permanent plant quarantine in the Lafayette area has been discussed, and a legal opinion on this has been requested by State Department of Agriculture Director Charles Paul.

The spores which spread the disease are relatively dormant during the winter. They get their early growth in ornamental juniper bushes and take two years to show themselves, Seeley said.

THE SPRAYING program's second phase will cost the county about $250,000.

As if these diseases were not enough, there is the "pear decline," which is an unknown factor.

Congressman John Baldwin discussed it at length in his recent newsletter.

Pear decline is found in Lafayette, but also Walnut Creek and Alhambra Valley.

IT IS prevalent in California, Oregon and Washington.

Trees affected fail to achieve normal growth; fruit does not mature and the plants eventually die.

Baldwin said he has participated in Washington, D.C. meetings on the possibility of an emergency research program by the Agriculture.

Appropriation of funds is necessary.

U.S. Government Department of essay.

Baldwin said pear decline killed 10,000 California pear trees in 1959, and probably some 150,000 trees died of this particular disease last year.

CONTRA COSTA is one of 10 of California's central counties which accounts for 85 per cent of the state's pear acreage.

Contra Costa has about 1500 acres of pears, but many are receding before the construction of house tracts.

Volunteers To Be Honored Tea

A "Thank You Angel" tea honoring workers of the Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County was the subject for planning during recent coffee-brunch meeting at the home of Mrs. James Morris of Lafayette.

Members of the committee planning the tea were Volunteer Bureau president Mrs. Charles Stimpson of Danville; Mrs. William Rhea, Pleasant Hill; and Mrs. James Morris, Lafayette, co-chairmen; Mrs. Benjamin Clarke and Mrs. Gene Williams of Walnut Creek who will be in charge of arrangements and publicity.

Over 400 volunteers who have actively assisted the United Crusade sponsored Volunteer Bureau during recent years will receive invitations to the "Thank You Angel" tea to be held in their honor on March 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Howard of Walnut Creek.

NEWCOMERS Club members reminiscing past good times and anticipating future social events are from left, Mesdames Walter Treanor, secretary; H. M. Polhemus, membership; D. J. Bentley, golf and David Clapp, bridge.

Is Your Money Going Up In Non-Unified Smoke?

Fire protection is, of course, essential to your home and your family's safety.

It's one of those things you don't really think about too often . . . usually only when you pay your fire insurance premiums every three years . . . or when you have a fire.

But fire protection, on a 24 hour a day basis, is an expensive business. Fire houses and expensive equipment must be maintained, and men must be paid salaries.

Occasionally someone takes a look at our fire protection districts and asks if the whole operation can't be managed a little more efficiently. If, perhaps, duplication of effort can't be avoided.

RECENTLY IT was proposed by Supervisor Mel Nielsen that some of our fire districts, and portions of others, be consolidated into one "super" fire district.

And the board of supervisors will hold a hearing on this February 23 at 1:30 p.m. But actually, it will not be an "official" hearing, more a kind of meeting to discuss the subject.

Frankly, we are not sure whether such consolidation of fire districts is a good idea or not.

We are not sure what it would accomplish that couldn't be done right now.

ALL OF OUR fire districts, with the exception of the Lafayette Fire District, are organized under such an act that they are actually county districts. That is, the board of supervisors is ultimately responsible for their actions.

In these districts the county board appoints members of the fire district board, and is responsible for the budget. In theory, the supervisors can "run" the district.

In Lafayette, organized under a different act, the commissioners are elected.

directly by the people. However, Lafayette is watching these proceedings with a good deal of interest also.

However, we certainly shouldn't close our minds to a new idea. We think that the meeting is a good idea, and that the results should be informative. Perhaps we will have more of a basis for decision when we hear the results.

BUT AREN'T there other solutions, too, that might be considered? For example, in the Los Angeles area, which is tremendous, there is an advisory group composed of one member from each fire district. This group lays out an area-wide policy.

Couldn't the same thing work here?

There is one other important consideration regarding consolidation of all fire districts. Individual communities could lose "local control" of their own affairs. It is much more likely that you will get sympathetic hearing on a local problem when the commissioners are residents of the area, than when they live elsewhere.

And there is one other factor. There are a lot of fine men who have worked very hard to run these districts as they are established now. They have taken pride in their responsibilities and in their work. This you could also lose.

FURTHERMORE, situations differ in our various communities. For example, Orinda has an emergency services vehicle. Now, Walnut Creek, for instance, has little need of such a car. Kaiser Hospital is close by, and the ambulance service is also located close by.

Therefore, our individual districts do have individual problems which can often be solved best by local understanding.

Nevertheless, investigation of the possibilities of unification is a good idea. We can always learn.

school similar in design to that which will be built in Moraga could be constructed.

BUT EVEN IF the plans are used elsewhere and are modified it would still appear to be a saving over "starting from scratch" in the design and construction of a high school plant.

The board conceded that the plan would work only if an authority not now provided were in existence, or if every existing district supported it.

But the county board is also doing other things, designed to provide more services for the same amount of money we are now spending, or to save us money.

FOR EXAMPLE, they are considering a centralized bookkeeping service to be performed by the county superintendent's office to eliminate duplicating records in the districts.

It is this kind of central service that can be provided by a county office which will help give us more services for our tax dollar, or even more important, institute a real saving.

And, if you remember your tax bill, we think you'll agree that this is the kind of thinking and planning that we need.

A long way to go ...

We Like It Here ... A Boon, a Bonanza & a Bit Of Blackmail All Enjoy!

By MARIE MONAHAN

THIS IS the season for SHOWERS . . . & we don't mean the Rainy Kind!

We are getting the June Brides ready for the rice-throwing & the Spring Babies ready for their Welcome into the World.

EVERYBODY loves a Bride & everybody loves a Baby, so the kind of showers we are speaking of are those where the precipitation is PRESENTS. Manna for Mama, Gifts galore!

IT IS A delightful form of feminine blackmail . . . But nobody seems to mind . . .

THERE is something about a shower party. You can't tell who's happiest—the Giver or the Getter.

The ladies have even invented excuses for new kinds of showers. We heard recently of a "Grandmother Shower" given for an Expectant Grandmother.

I imagine presents of this sort would include tranquilizers, ear plugs, a couple of crosswords & mysteries & a cozy afghan shawl. Two tickets to Timbuctoo might also come in handy!

MOST ladies know all about showers instinctively. They come by it naturally the day their best friend got engaged right out of school. Anything that pertains to giving or getting GIFTS comes naturally to the female. Self-preservation, I guess.

BACK IN our salad days when the Romantic News was out, Everybody but EVERYBODY had to give a shower for the Bride-To-Be. Not just one shower, mind you, or two, but maybe half a dozen.

SET HER UP in silver & china, linens & lingerie. Glassware, too, of her own pattern choice not to mention culinary gifts for a kitchen shower.

I remember one friend Who Got EVERYTHING! She wound up after her wedding with 28 salt & peppers . . . in a two-room apartment.

IT SEEMS everybody had given Their All for Shower gifts & by the time the wedding present was due, they'd run out of ideas. Hence, the surplus of SALTS!

Ladies love shower parties! That is because these affairs are well timed. Usually falling around luncheon . . . or from one to three o'clock. Which means dessert!

DESSERT is especially nice for those who never got around to lunch after their morning coffee. So no one ever mentions diets or calories & if they do, it's always with a devil-may-care, how-can-anyone-resist-these-DELICIOUS-things-attitude?

THE COFFEE & tea flow furiously. The chocolate torte, the mints & nuts, the passing of francy-frosted petitfours are just part of the preliminaries to the opening of the Hen-party haul. But we couldn't just dig into the presents without SOME sort of civilized ceremony.

AT A BABY SHOWER, the SEVENTH present opened means that the donor will be the NEXT new mother & my, what a flurry of giggling this causes! Except from the seventh-package lady. Who usually has her children well-established in high school & thinking of running for Mayor next year!

NOW TAKE a long look at the lady being showered!

Her brow is obviously hot & fevered. Her lily whites are fluttery, nervous & moist. My Dear, she hardly touched her second cream puff & her coffee is ice cold. She is blushing like a bride & behaving like a kid on Christmas morn.

NO WONDER! For the gal who wrestles with the ribbons & wallows in the tissue is feeling like Queen Elizabeth, Jackie Kennedy, Cindrella & Marilyn Monroe all rolled into one!

And if that isn't enough to wear one out, I don't know.

BUT THEN I DO! Because it's been happening to me & I don't think there's anything that makes a woman happier than a host of friends heaping presents on her . . .

ESPECIALLY if she's soon to walk down the aisle . . .

Or like me, expecting a new infant after NINE YEARS!

Now show me again, HOW did you fold that diaper?

Letters to The Editor

FILM RATINGS

Dear Editor:

The members of Lafayette Suburban Women's Club wish to commend you for publishing the ratings of current motion pictures in your publications.

We feel that this is a much needed service in your community, where the theaters are regularly showing many movies unsuitable for young teen-agers.

Great numbers of children are allowed to attend these movies partly because their parents are unaware that they are unsuitable.

WE HOPE that you will be able to continue this column. A still greater service would be the publication in the Sun and Shopping News each week of the ratings of movies to be shown locally during the coming week, so that parents could easily refer to it when judging whether or not to permit their child to go to a given movie.

Our members are concerned about this general problem of children attending adult movies.

One avenue of partial solution might be to make reviews and ratings of the movies readily available to the public.

RAPID TRANSIT

Dear Editor:

A copy of the following letter to Mel Nielsen, supervisor, 2nd Supervisorial District, from A.I. Combs, Lafayette Oaks Association, was received by the Sun this week. The letter is as follows:

"It was disappointing, indeed, to many Lafayette residents to hear that the board of directors of the Rapid Transit District approved use of Sacramento Northern routing for their transit line. We were pleased to see that Mr. Morrison, Mr. Cummings and Mr. Joseph, the three directors from Contra Costa County, did not vote in favor of that routing.

"We certainly feel that you and the other members of our Contra Costa Board of Supervisors should continue to support the Lafayette-Sun Valley areas in opposing the routing through our residential area. I hope that you will let me know if you want or need any more indication of the wishes of the business people, the organizations, associations and voters of this affected area. I know you have many letters, resolutions, petitions, etc.; but we could do more if you need additional support for your stand."

A. I. COMBS

RAPID TRANSIT

Dear Editor:

The following letter is a copy of a letter sent to Jack Cummings, vice president of the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District from Hugh Kenneth Forsman, road and transit chairman, Lafayette Improvement Association. The letter reads as follows:

At the regular meeting last week of the board of directors of the Lafayette Improvement Association I was instructed to write to you expressing our deep and sincere appreciation of your vote as well as that of the other Contra Costa district board members on the matter of utilizing Olympic Boulevard for our trains.

May I add my personal thanks for your assistance.

Our board is deeply concerned over the proposal to trestle across our town and then continue through a fully developed residential area. We trust that your board and especially Mr. Hoover's department will conscientiously continue your studies with a view to avoiding this routing.

The Improvement Association and I am sure, the entire community, fully recognize your problems, but we must continue to impress upon you the undesirability of the routing referred to above.

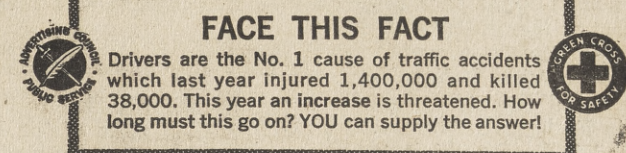

One additional thought. I am afraid that all of us have placed so much emphasis on the Olympic Boulevard phase of the route that we have completely overlooked the proposal to trestle across the town. Surely no one can seriously urge that this trestle will add anything to our community.

HUGH FORSMAN

FIXED FOR LIFE

The car may be repaired but this small victim will never be the same. All because some driver gambled with speed limits, cheated a stop sign or ignored road markings. Most accidents can be traced to such law violations. Each day they injure, cripple and kill thousands. Help end this frightful toll! Drive carefully. Obey the law. Insist that others do, too. Where traffic laws are strictly obeyed, accidents go down!

Under The Sun What Are the Prophets Of Doom Trying to Do?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

My friend Bill decided he needs a new car. His Olds needs rings and about $200 worth of repairs. Bill figured the Olds should be traded in because it is nearly eight years old. He started looking at cars and was about ready to buy.

A few days ago Bill picked up the paper and what do you suppose he discovered?

"My gosh, things are really bad. I knew the country was in a so-called recession but now Kennedy, Goldberg, Rayburn tell us things are much worse and could get terrible," Bill said. "Now these fellows ought to know."

Bill has a local store. He reported that business in January was good—better than last year. He finished 1960 with his best year ever.

Bill swings into action!

"Perhaps I had better cut down future orders," Bill said. "If the president says business is not good, maybe I had better reduce my inventory a bit. And I certainly had better not buy a new car now," Bill added.

Is there a moral to this true story?

I don't know. I'm beginning to wonder if this great nation is going to talk itself into "bad times."

Why is the new Kennedy administration painting such a gloomy picture?

The answer certainly could be: because the picture is gloomy. I admire Kennedy's frankness, boldness, selection of key officials. I join with so many others in applauding his desire for action.

But is his scare approach going to produce the results he wants—or will it make the situation even worse?

Perhaps this is why . . .

When Kennedy and Company present a very pessimistic picture, I presume they are trying to be completely frank about the problem. They are laying the cards on the table; they are calling a spade "a spade"—to use a few clichés. This approach has merit. It is certainly better than pretending nothing is wrong; better than just sitting and hoping things will get better.

At this point, let me relate another conversation.

At lunch I sat next to the manager of a big food store. I asked how is business?

His face dropped to a scowl. "Well, I don't know," he answered. "It seems a bit soft in spots."

How do you compare with last year?

"Well, we're ahead of last year but I think we should be doing better."

And another report . . .

I talked to the manager of another store. Same story—January was ahead of January, 1960. His final '60 figures were good. Then, he differed from the others; he is optimistic about the future but is worried about the messages of doom.

What is the answer? I don't know. I expect there is a middle ground somewhere—not 100 per cent pessimistic, nor 100% optimistic. But, for goodness sakes, let's not scare ourselves into "bad times."

Well, what do you think?

Letters to The Editor

COVENANT

Dear Editor:

I've been reading all this stuff about the "open covenant" and the rights of minorities, and I'd like to ask a question:

How about the right of the majority?

After all, most people feel they have a right to live where they want, and how they want, and next to whom they want. Shouldn't the majority, whom I am sure feel this way, have the right to do so?

We are told that deed restrictions, etc., are illegal . . . how then, is a man to live in the neighborhood of his choice without running the risk of having "minorities" move in?

It would appear that the only real safeguard is an economic one, and that is not any too certain. And most of us are not in a position to pay the price for a home that would be necessary to insure that we could live in a neighborhood that would be "restricted" to our kind of people.

I, for one, think that this "open covenant" business is a tempest in a teapot, and is unnecessarily stirring people up. What we are actually doing is INVITING minority groups to make their homes here.

If they were so inclined, wouldn't they find their way out here anyway?

Do we need to publish pictures and stories, week after week, to call attention to the fact that this is a desirable place to live, and that, by golly, we don't care who comes out here and changes it.

Look at Berkeley. It is no longer the beautiful place to live in that it used to be. And it happened there without any "advertising" at all.

I, for one, wouldn't sign the open covenant. And I'm not sure that the "liberals" (or is that just a polite word for what the REALLY might be?) actually know what they are doing.

The trouble is, when they wake up to the fact, it will be too late. And they will not only have ruined their own neighborhoods, but the rest of ours too. Name withheld by request.

Why Not Use 'Em Again If They Work Out Well?

If you remember, with dislike, the staggering total of your last tax bill, then this idea applies to you.

One of the most expensive, and of course necessary items on that bill, was education. It costs a lot of money to run school plants. And they are expensive to build. Land costs money, buildings are costly. It costs about $2 million to build a complete high school plant.

The Contra Costa County Board of Education came up with an interesting idea recently. One that is certainly worth planning and consideration.

A PRIMARY suggestion is the use of standardized plans and other means of cutting costs of school construction.

This, of course, is not a new idea. In fact, Acalanes Union High School District has proven that it can be done on a realistic basis. The district will use the plans for Del Valle High School in Lafayette to construct a high school at Rheem in Moraga.

The county group has asked the question, "Why can't such re-use of plans be carried out on an inter-district level as well as within one district?"

This sounds like pretty good reasoning. Certainly there is plenty of flat land in Ygnacio Valley, say, where a high

The Staff Corner The Cat's Whiskers...

By DICK OSBORN

Don't remember who said it at the moment, but it went something like this: "No matter how much the cats fight, there always seem to be kittens."

We don't know whether you have noticed it or not, but cats have definite personalities. They are really individuals.

Although we are no authority on cats (we doubt that ANYONE is), we would like to discuss, for a moment, a special kind of cat named Felix Contra Costas.

OR, IN THE common vernacular, the Cat Next Door.

You have undoubtedly met him. He is the cat that is always a little bigger than your own pet Tabby, and therefore beats up on your cat regularly.

We have one friend (who has since taken care of the matter surgically) who has spent some $60 in vet bills, and then wails, "He's just a common old cat, too, nothing special!"

We doubt that, because the family cat seems always to be something special.

Have you been adopted by a cat lately? This happens with fair regularity in our lovely community. Because there are plenty of fields around, and we don't live in a city atmosphere, cats seem to wander—and they will frequently adopt a family.

So, you may not have a cat now, but it's possible that you will have one tomorrow.

HAVE YOU NOTICED that spring is here? You can always tell by the cats. Don't bother to pay any attention to the weather. When kitty comes home all beat up, and when he, or she, would rather spend more time outside than in, then spring is here.

We know of one cat that sits on a little mound of dirt outside the house and surveys the whole world in front of her, including Mt. Diablo.

And you know what? She thinks the whole darn thing belongs to her!

THEN THERE'S the cat that marched into the housewife's kitchen, calmly slouched through an open cupboard door and emerged a few minutes later with a mouse.

That is calculated to make every housewife just jump with joy. Well, jump, anyway.

But somehow, when you're sitting in a comfortable chair, and a warm, furry little thing curls up in your lap and purrs, it's all worth it.

We know, because we have a cat that owns our house.

She does everything but pay the bills!

Tuesday Morning Forum Opens Spring Series

An outstanding program for the opening of the spring series of the Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum was announced this week by Mrs. Arch J. Campbell, the coordinator, at the regular board of directors meeting held at the home of Mrs. George Towle in Alamo.

The first program, to be presented at the Diablo Country Club Tuesday, will feature John Scott, special assistant to the editor of Time magazine. He will discuss "The New Europe," with emphasis on freedom through unity.

Scott, a Philadelphia native who attended American and Swiss schools and worked in Russia, has long been recognized as an authority on international affairs.

He was in Japan as a correspondent at the outbreak of the war, then became a contributing editor to Time in New York and covered the state department in Washington. After being assigned to London, he headed the Time-Life bureau in Stockholm.

He takes a fact-finding trip each summer, his most recent visits being to Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union, and to Western Europe.

On March 21, Emily Kimbrough, noted author and humorist, will address the forum on the topic, "Listen While You Look." With her friend, Cornelia Otis Skinner, she has authored several best-sellers.

The closing program, April 11, will be the report of commentator Felix Greene, who returned last October from Red China.

Forum programs are open to the public, with tickets obtainable at the door the morning of the programs. Series tickets are $5 for three lectures or $2 single admission. Coffee will be served at 10 o'clock, prior to the program at 10:30.

Easter in Paris Plans Underway for March 18

The Mt. Diablo Therapy Center coordinating council met on Wednesday morning to make further plans for "Easter in Paris," the mid-March fund raising event they are holding at the Broadway Shopping Center.

Presidents of 17 auxiliary units discussed the various events that will be held on March 18 to make the "Easter in Paris" affair the biggest and most profitable in the therapy center's history.

Mrs. Marvin Kennedy, president of the coordinating council, announced that plans have been completed with the French National Tourist Office to supply decorations to give the Broadway shopping center a real Parisian air. Mrs. Kennedy said that the outdoor cafes that will be set up in the shopping center will be "extremely reminiscent of Paris in the spring."

"We know that the people of Contra Costa County will support this wonderful program that we are having on March 18 to raise funds for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. Each person who contributes $1 to the therapy center that day will be served in our outdoor cafes and will have a chance to win a marvelous trip to Hawaii for two, as well as other fine prizes. That alone should make our attendance excellent," she said.

Attending the meeting to plan for the affair were Mrs. Frank Tebbis, president of the Orioles; Mrs. Richard Leland, president of the Tanagers; Mrs. Ted Lake, president of the Mary Doyle group; Mrs. K. S. Welch, president of the Larks; Mrs. M. F. Ohman, president of the Robins; Mrs. Fred Seuberg of the Linnets; Mrs. Fred Hair of Towhees; Mrs. Robert Kuhn of the Flamingos;

Also Mrs. Allan M. DeSoto of the Starlings; Mrs. Harold E. Vincent of the Flickers; Mrs. Fred Latham of the Hummingbirds; Mrs. R. Westlye of the Cardinals; Mrs. Thomas Nilon of the Linnet Juniors; Mrs. David L. Brenner of the Wrens;

Mrs. Clyde Wilson of the Quails; Mrs. John Gilcrest of the Swallows and Mrs. Alfred E. Patch of the Nightingales.

It was announced at the meeting that ticket buyers will be able to place their stubs for the winning tickets in receptacles to be placed in the Broadway shopping center next week.

The tickets will be collected and held for the March 18 drawing, when the lucky winner will be announced. All funds given to the therapy center go for its own program, announced the therapy center spokesmen.

Besides the Paris cafes, promenading models will show spring fashions at the "Easter in Paris" affair, it was reported. The theme of the day will be Paris bells, which will be heard throughout the area and which will decorate the Broadway shopping center.

Other events will be announced shortly, but it is known that there will be an outdoor art exhibit and other events for youngsters.

Mental Health Panel to Speak

Women's Club Celebrates

The Lafayette Women's Club celebrated the silver anniversary of the club and each member's own birthday at a luncheon on February 7 at Mike Lynn's Restaurant.

The club was formed 25 years ago as the Lafayette Forum, which later became the Lafayette Women's Club; it grew from a few ladies living "way-out in the country" to be a leader in civic affairs in a rapidly growing community and an affiliation of the Federated Women's Club.

Mrs. Charles Grant, program chairman, and Mrs. Charles Morrill, luncheon chairman, assisted by Mesdames Robert McGuire, Mark Schroeder, Edmond Schneider, Robert Perry and Clayton Hermon combined the sign of the zodiac's twelve symbols and the holiday of the month theme for table decorations and carried out the valentine motif as wall decorations.

Following the luncheon, the members were entertained by Frances Knight, "Teller of Tales in Song" and a fashion show by Acalanes high school students.

Mrs. Mark Schrader, contest chairman for the club, and Mrs. Shirley Frazier, home economics teacher at Acalanes High School, worked together in selecting six home economics students to represent the school in a national sewing contest sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and a pattern service.

Each student modeled the costume made by her in the high school sewing class. Miss Linda Camp, a senior, was chosen as the winner with Miss Joann Kennett as runner up. Miss Camp will model her costume in competition with other district winners at the Mt. Diablo District Federated Women's Club meeting.

A state prize will be awarded as well as national honors. The national first prize will be a $1,000 scholarship (or cash) and a scholarship award of $500 will be given to the second winner.

and $250 awarded to the third winner in the national contest.

Campaign Against Imported Clothes, Goods Initiated

An intensive campaign to promote goods "Made in America" has been launched by Grodins, Northern California's chain of men's wear stores.

Arnold Michaels, president, said full page ads appearing in leading newspapers in the six Grodins' store communities carry the "Made in America" slogan, which is dramatized by a reproduction of the Liberty Bell from an historic early American wood cut.

The campaign activates Michaels' recent proposal to the members of the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Fur-nishers, representing the large majority of this country's clothiers.

HE CALLED on members to reduce their imports of foreign goods by 20 per cent and at the same time to step up promotion of "Made in America" goods.

Michaels, who is president of the association, pointed to the gold drain crisis in urging that clothiers "become re-oriented with the many fine things made right in our back yards."

He said, "American products made by skilled American workers enjoying the world's highest wages and working in safe, healthy, modern plants, engineered by American brains, are clearly superior to products made anywhere else in the world."

IN ADDITION to newspaper advertising, the campaign is backed by displays in some 47 key exposure windows in Grodins' six stores. Point of sale, as well as various intensive internal store displays, will carry out the Liberty Bell theme.

The Bernard B. Schnitzer Advertising Agency, San Francisco, is handling the account, Jerry Green, account executive, Robert Seitas, art director.

UC's County Staff Has Busy Year

The Contra Costa staff of the University of California had one of its busiest years in 1960.

Paul Lamborn, county director of the staff, reported that there was much activity in all three phases of their program—agriculture, home economics and 4-H work.

Lamborn said that the staff of six farm advisors and two home advisors made 2712 calls at homes to provide educational information about such subjects as improving livestock and dairying, controlling pests in orchards, fertilizing crops, planning for better homes and developing programs for youth. In addition, 2324 office callers sought information and 6291 persons telephoned requests.

Some 29,750 publications and other duplicated information went to families. Leader training meetings conducted by farm and home advisors were attended by 18,979 persons. A total of 222 4-H Club meetings were attended by 16,428.

Lamborn said, "The 4-H Club program is an important part of the work of the University Agricultural Extension Service in this county. More than a thousand boys and girls took part in this during 1960. Two hundred and thirteen local leaders assisted in carrying on this program."

Knights Win Two

Las Lomas kept on rolling along in the Foothill race, posting key wins over San Ramon and Miramonte to hold onto its slim one-game lead.

Acalanes kept pace with wins over Alhambra and San Ramon. The Dons are one game behind the league leaders.

Miramonte lost games to Piedmont and Las Lomas and dropped out of contention.

THE MATS have now lost five of six games after starting with five straight wins.

In Tuesday's game, the Las Lomas Knights racked up Miramonte 52-31.

Miramonte was even with the Knights twice—at the beginning of the game. At the end of the first quarter it was 8-8.

LAS LOMAS pulled away to a 28-14 halftime lead and while Miramonte outscored the Knights 10-6 in the third quarter they came back to roll up 18 points in the final eight minutes to Miramonte's seven.

Jack Gilbert topped Miramonte scorers with nine points while Rod Holcomb with 13, Bud Murphy with 11 and Rene Brandol with 10 headed the Las Lomas scoring column.

The Knights virtually monopolized the boards, grabbing off 32 rebounds to the Mats' 16. The Knights had 18 for 41 for 44 per cent from the floor to the Mats' eight for 38 for 21 per cent.

In addition, the Knights had its best game to date at the free throw line, tanking 70 per cent with a 18 for 23 to Miramonte's 60 per cent on 15 for 25.

COACH Bert Burnett's Acalanes Dons posted a 54-45 win over San Ramon after trailing 11-10 the first quarter and then forging to a 20-14 halftime lead.

In the final quarter San Ramon put 18 points on the scoreboard, only to have Acalanes score 21. Six different players got points in the spurge.

The Dons' Dave Stegmann took game scoring honors with 12 points while Doug Treter for Acalanes, along with Jim Howell and Bob Metz of San Ramon each had 11.

Tom Strain had 10 for the Dons, as did K. C. Evans for the Wolves.

In the other Foothill League game the Piedmont Highlanders really hit "high C" on its bagpipes when they rolled over, under and around the Alhambra Bulldogs for a convincing 71-59 win.

BOTH CLUBS hit in double digits in every quarter. For Piedmont it was 14-15-15 and 24, while for Alhambra it was 12-13-14-20.

Piedmont's Bill Clayton, with 22 points, and Craig Coakley, with 18, were well ahead of Alhambra's Jim Hammett, who topped his team's scoring with 13 points.

Piedmont kept game control by some sharp shooting, plus the fact they had ball control a good part of the time, as they nabbed 39 rebounds to Alhambra's 18.

Las Lomas stayed out in front in the league standings last Friday as they bopped San Ramon 53-43.

After a tight first half when the score was tied on six occasions, the Knights pulled away in the second half.

The count was knotted 17-17 at the half.

ON the other league games, the Acalanes Dons stayed one game off the pace as they put on a fourth quarter spurge to win going away, 48-37, against Alhambra.

Miramonte found another Tartar in the Piedmont Highlanders as they dropped its fourth game in five outings.

THE GAME was a rough and ready go that saw the Mats taking the count, 50-44.

The top scorer in the Las Lomas-San Ramon game was Bob Nichols and he proved to be the difference as he poured 27 points through the mesh.

San Ramon made a game of it all the way with Jim Howell's 12 points and Bob Metz with 10 giving the Knights plenty of trouble.

In the Acalanes-Alhambra game the Dons held a 24-14 halftime advantage only to have the Alhambra Bulldogs score 15 points in the third quarter to close the gap to a 33-29 count.

THE DONS came fast in the final canto, paced by Tom Strain, who ended up as the game's top scorer with 16 points.

In the Piedmont-Miramonte game the Mats high scoring center, Jack Gilbert, banged in 16 points, while Piedmont's Rick Prestwood was not far behind with 15.

Piedmont had a good afternoon, hitting the hoop with a startling 79 per cent on field goals in the second half and a good 60 per cent for the game.

Bob Foskett played a bang-up all-around game for Piedmont and hit for 12 points.

MIKE McQUAID had 12 for Miramonte, while Doug Hudson wound up with 11.

The Fishing Is Slow, But Sturgeon Are Plentiful

By LARRY JACKSON

Muddy water slowed down the fishing from the straits to far upstream in the Delta areas.

The morning rain held back the addicts to some extent and those out boating had to work hard to get the fish hitting.

The chief topic of conversation was the large body of sturgeon, leaping and cavorting in the Suisun cut-off and around the islands. Playful fish are not the biting type, however, the run of these lunkers still continues.

McAvoy's Harbor boats provided most of the news during the week with more boats out on Sunday with a total of 15 striper, to 10 pounds. One 57-inch sturgeon taken by Orval Duncan from the Pitts-Shore Acres area, topping the bags.

Two Concoradians, Jim Fillmore and Will Loury, registered striper at 20 and 24 pounds for the Schenley Derby at the Bait and Tackle stand for the high fish of the week.

THE PITTSBURG fishing clan will be Berger, Angelo Compobizzo, Ratz Bruno, Dino Russo and Gab Capeto, all continued to bring in striper ranging in size from five to 14½ pounds. All tell us that the fishing was tough with lots of smaller "toss-backs" but plenty of fish seen through the muddy waters. Sardines proved the best bait at this area.

Hard luck fishing gal of the week was Ruth Matthews of Lafayette, who played a nice sturgeon right up to the dock at Whites Fishing Resort, only to have it come "unbuttoned" as she was asking for the gaff.

Ruth is a good sport, however, as she vowed to come back and get him on her next day off.

Sunday Al Werner, Oakland, a regular Sunday sport, nailed striper to 4-5 pounds taken on Uncle Eddies famous bullheads.

The flounder are still being taken in numbers with bass adding to the bags.

A GOODLY crowd was on hand Sunday with the youngsters showing the most action, but most of the fish were not legal and had to get wet again.

Dowdrellos played the week out with better crowds, but also encountered roily, silty water to hold the takes down.

Sunday we watched the Dowdrello No. 5 dock with a crowd of 15 with near limits for all aboard.

Good weather for the coming week and clearer water will jump the sport back to its peak again. For the cat fishermen, right now any of the sloughs up the Delta are producing fish in numbers.

Localities who ventured out the past weekend have nothing but slow reports in both the steelie and black bass sport.

Many of our local nimrods as well as many county residents are still talking about a father and son shoot held a week ago at nearby Lodi.

THE FARMERS in the area were overrun with the Gallinules, or mud hens, rice hens or whatever you wish to call them. They appealed to W. H. Lehr, state representative of the Farmers and Unorganized Hunters Association.

Lehr arranged for the shoot placing it in the hands of the Amato Sportsman's Club, Martinez, to organize.

About 40 shooters and their youngsters gathered for the event with the youngsters chasing up the birds and dad doing the shooting. Everybody had a "ball."

Top gunner to bring in his 25 limit was a youngster of 84 summers and winters, who spends the winter here locally with relatives from his home in Calispell, Montana—by name Frank Sullivan. Really the life of the party.

Walnut Creek's Johnny Broham, also rated as runner up in the limit department, of which there were many.

As a "payoff" nary a bird was wasted—plenty waisted, though. Pete and Marie Amato, along with sons Jack and Vince, invited all the participants and their friends to a Mud Hen dinner last Saturday evening.

Over 300 were served and a royal good time was had by all the hunters, their distaff side and the happy small fry.

Let's give credit where credit is due: the Amato's and their gratuitousness.

We personally have never had such a fine dish as this really edible fowl.

IN TALKING with the F.&G. Dept. man in charge of the shoot, Johnny Roumasset of Lodi, he stated that he had never seen such an excellent shoot, managed with such caution and good sportsmanship.

If the mud hens hang around in numbers, look for another announcement for more of these shoots. They make the farmers happy as well as the shooters and benefit in more ways than one.

Good shootin', guys.

Keith Thrallkill paced the Miramonte point getters as he won all three of his matches by falls.

Acalanes had five individual champions as did Miramonte with San Ramon and Las Lomas each copping one. The Dons qualified 10 wrestlers, the Mats have nine.

Las Lomas Sets Torrid Pace

Acalanes Only Team with Chance To Catch Leaders

The Las Lomas Knights took a while to get on their high horse but once they did they took the Foothill League lead and have never relinquished it.

The Miramonte Matadors were out in front but appear to have collapsed as they lost five of its last six games.

Four games counting tonight's contests remain on the schedule.

It would appear that the Acalanes Dons are the only club with a real chance to overcome Las Lomas. They are but one game off the pace.

San Ramon at Miramonte

Games Tuesday

Acalanes at Miramonte

Las Lomas at Piedmont

San Ramon at Alhambra

(All afternoon games)

TONIGHT Alhambra plays at Las Lomas and are real underdogs in view of the record to date.

The Alhambra Bulldogs have a sharp shooter in Jim Hammet but the Lomas defense is one of the circuit's best and will probably slow him down.

The Knights have a well-balanced club and appear to have the poise necessary to go all the way.

Their ace scorer Bob Nichols sat last Tuesday's game with Miramonte out due to a "touch of the flu plus a sprained ankle." He undoubtedly will sit this one out if he isn't fully recovered in order to be ready for the crucial contest with Piedmont next Tuesday.

THE "BIG ONE" tonight looks to be Piedmont at Acalanes.

Rivalry here is keen and Piedmont currently is the hottest scoring team in the circuit. They will be out to avenge two earlier defeats at the hands of the Dons.

This is a "do or die" game for the Dons if they are to stay in contention. Piedmont has been able to defeat the league leading Las Lomas club once and only lost out in their second go in the closing seven seconds.

Acalanes has dropped two to Las Lomas and at the same time has racked Piedmont twice.

If Piedmont keeps its sharp shooting eye, the Dons are in trouble.

They have had problems hitting the hoop with any real regularity.

In tonight's other game San Ramon plays at Miramonte and could well drop the Mats further down the ladder. They are one and one in playing each other in league play to date.

THE SCORING duel here could well be between San Ramon's K. C. Evans and Miramonte's Jack Gilbert. Both are among the league's top scorers.

Pleasant Hill Tops Pacifica, But Lose To Mt. Diablo

Mt. Diablo remained in title contention in the DVAL by posting a 51-42 win over Pleasant Hill Tuesday.

Pittsburg took over undisputed possession of first place by defeating Clayton Valley.

Mt. Diablo and Clayton Valley are now tied for second place with 72 records.

Pittsburg is now 8-1, with games against College Park tonight, Pacifica and Pleasant Hill left on the schedule.

Pleasant Hill now has a 5-5 mark in league play.

The Rams host Antioch tonight at the Pleasant Hill gym before meeting league leading Pittsburg next Friday. They have a bye Tuesday.

College Park was idle Tuesday and Pittsburg tonight.

The Rams started fast against the Devils, jumping out in front 16-9 at the end of the first quarter.

Mt. Diablo knuckled down in the second quarter and allowed the Rams only three free throws to go out in front at the intermission, 23-19.

They put the game on ice with a 17-point outburst in the third quarter.

Senior guard Terry Hughes of Pleasant Hill paced all scorers with 24 points. He was the only Ram in double figures, however.

Three men paced the Diablo attack. Mike Sweeney had 14, Tom Brown 13 and Don Bradley 10.

The Pleasant Hill Rams posted a 59-47 win over the Pacifica Spartans last Friday night in a free scoring game.

The Rams held a scant 13-12 first quarter and 21-20 halftime advantage.

The Pleasant Hill five pulled away in the third and fourth quarter, outscoring Pacifica 21-15 and 17-12 in that order.

Dick Dole with 15 points and Terry Hughes with 10 topped the Rams in the scoring columns.

It was the Rams' fifth win in nine games.

In other Contra Costa Division action the Pittsburg Pirates topped the Diablo Red Devils in a crucial game, 49-43, after taking a 22-20 halftime lead.

College Park had trouble in hitting the hoop and went down 46-21 after trailing Antioch 25-6 at the half.

Clayton Valley had a bye.

Clayton Valley Upsets Rams in DVAL Wrestling

The Diablo Valley Athletic League held its annual wrestling meet last Saturday at Pleasant Hill High and when the last bout had been decided Clayton Valley had upset Pleasant Hill by scoring 113 points.

The Rams were second with 98 points.

Mt. Diablo had 93, Pittsburg 79, College Park 51, Antioch 34, Pacifica 31.

Lennis Cowell, Pleasant Hill's 123 pound champion, took honors as the meet's outstanding performer.

Teammate Tom Foster at 175 went through all of his matches without a point being scored against him.

Foster, a junior wrestling since his freshman year, is undefeated with a string of 39 straight wins.

The top two boys in each weight division qualify for the North Coast Section I meet to be held at Acalanes High School tomorrow.

Besides Cowell and Foster, Pleasant Hill qualified Dave Moore in the 130 class, Dave Rockwell, 136, and Bob Ernest, 141.

St. Mary's Faces Loyola in Year's "Biggest Game"

The biggest game of the year for the St. Mary's Gaels is on tap tomorrow evening when the Loyola Lions from Los Angeles invade the Moraga gym. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Lions currently are sitting atop the West Coast Athletic Conference with only one loss.

In second place are the San Francisco Dons with likewise a single loss, but having played three less games.

THE GAELS rest in third place with a pair of losses, but could move into a virtual tie with the Lions on the strength of a win tomorrow.

San Francisco does not meet Loyola against this year, but will face the Gaels again.

After dropping a last minute, 53-51 thriller to the Dons in San Francisco last Wednesday, the Gaels dumped Santa Clara and University of Pacific on Saturday and Tuesday to keep alive title hopes.

At the Oakland Auditorium against the Broncos, the Gaels reeled off 1 straight points after trailing 24-21 at halftime.

With three minutes played in the second half, the Gaels trailed by one point, 28-27. Paced by guard Vurdell Newsome, the St. Mary's bolted into a 38-28 lead and were never headed.

THE BRONCOS came back, paced by little Pete Lillevand, and cut the margin to a single basket. Guard Tom Sheridan and Newsome came through with key baskets to keep the St. Mary's five on top, however.

Newsome topped St. Mary's scorers with 19 points. Hamilton Holmes had 12. Tom Meschery was held to five baskets by the tough Santa Clara defense.

After building up a big early lead against Pacific, the Gaels let down in the second half before pulling out a 72-64 victory.

Squaw---Good or Bad? Ups, Downs of Skiing

By HEC HANCOCK

It was just a year ago this week end that the Winter Olympics got under way at Squaw Valley. That erstwhile calm and tranquil alpine valley, became for ten days the capital of the ski and winter sport universe.

From the opening ceremonies, when the sun broke through a driving snow storm with tremendous dramatic impact, to the extinguishing of the Olympic flame, the games were a complete artistic success.

The ski slopes were excellent, the ice rinks great, the facilities fine. The competitions were conducted in a very orderly fashion before large crowds.

HOWEVER, ever since the games, considerable controversy has raged over Squaw Valley.

The cost is now regarded as prohibitive. The disposition of the facilities leaves much to be desired in the minds of many. In many respects, Squaw Valley is a political football.

There is, however, one irrefutable fact concerning the matter. Squaw Valley is an established area.

At long last, California has a winter report of major magnitude. There are excellent runs, good highways making it accessible from the metropolitan areas.

DESPITE all the hue and cry raised by its creation, these facilities are now available to the public.

I do not propose to argue the pros and cons of the situation, as I simply don't know them.

I am convinced of one thing though. The Sierras will never be the same.

There isn't any possible way you can calculate the impact the Olympics have had on skiing.

Literally thousands of new skiers are being added monthly. As we mark the first anniversary of the games, I can't help feel that as the years pass, we will look more and more favorably on Squaw.

THERE ARE many ups and downs to skiing. Oh say, isn't that a funny?

What I had in mind was applying the new measure of acceptance used to determine whether or not a thing is chic or not to the ski world.

Woven reindeer sweaters are way down. Ski socks worn outside the pants have been down for years. Stretch pants are very up. Rotation in making turns is down. Short poles are down, but short skis are up. Visored ski caps with side flaps for ears, are down. Wool head bands are up again.

Plain wool sweaters with the emphasis on the simple elegance are up. Quilted parkas are up, as are Loden coats.

Non safety bindings are down. Sugar Bowl, Squaw Valley and Mt. Rose are up ski areas. Aspen is very up. Likewise Sun Valley. Yosemite is down (except for a multitude of tourists).

Ski touring cross country is down. Crazy straw hats for spring skiing are up. Knickers are down. Volkswagens for driving to the mountains are up.

TELEMARK turns (how many even remember them) are down. Toboggans are down. Double breasted parkas are down, way down. Air Force type sunglasses are down. Boats for the porch are up.

SHORTS for spring skiing are up, both men and women. (That's a good trend!) Winter ski vacations are up.

A TWO-WAY PROFIT

Having the ignition system gone over and replacing spark plugs that need to be replaced does more than insure easier starting in cold weather, points out the National Automobile Club. It also insures considerable saving of gas.

Meschery Gives Up WCAC Lead

Ken Stanley, University of Pacific's classy junior guard, has moved ahead of Saint Mary's Tom Meschery in the West Coast Athletic Conference scoring race.

Stanley has tallied 88 points in four games for a 22-point average, while Meschery has 126 markers in six starts for a 21-point norm.

Playing for cellar-dwelling Pacific, Stanley has scored exactly one half of his team's league points in three games and also ranks among the top ten in league rebounding and free throw accuracy.

Meschery, an all-league choice last year as a junior, is the WCAC's top field goal shooter and ranks fourth in rebounding. The husky center has connected on 40 of his 73 shots for a 54.8 percentage.

St. Mary's ranks number one in team offense and field goal accuracy and Santa Clara maintained its top spot in rebounding. San Jose and Santa Clara, the two stingiest teams in the nation, met Tuesday night in San Jose, with the Broncos winning, 30-29.

Lady Golfers Tie for First

Mrs. Kermit Coon and Mrs. Barney Weisinger tied for first flight honors in the weekly Contra Costa Country Club Women's nament.

Mrs. W. E. Eldridge finished in the runner-up spot.

Mrs. W. E. Ellis was the second flight winner, with Mrs. John Edgar and Mrs. Al Schoppman tied for second place.

The ladies' group held their first meeting of the year on the same day under the direction of their new captain, Mrs. Norman Macaulay of Lafayette.

WC Pucksters Top League Leaders

The Walnut Creek Warriors dumped league leading San Francisco, 7-2, last Sunday night and climbed to within one game of the top spot in the Northern California Ice Hockey League.

It was the third straight win for the Warriors since the return of 53-year-old player-coach Bud Cook from retirement.

The team had lost four in a row prior to Cook's return.

It was the Warriors sixth win of the campaign. They have four losses.

San Francisco is now 7-3.

GILLE TANGUAY scored the "hat trick" for the Warriors with three goals.

Brother Rene scored twice and assisted on one of Gille's goals.

Gille also assisted on one of his brother's goals.

The Warriors have now handed San Francisco all three of its league losses. The Shamrocks have been able to beat Walnut Creek only once.

The accidental discharge of a .45 pistol while in his hand took the life of Richard D. Jennings, 32, former Danville resident. The accident occurred in Cold Springs, where Jennings was a resident.

Jennings, a Matson Lines purser and former U.S. Army military policeman, was indulging in some "horseplay" when he placed the weapon to his head and pulled the trigger. He had moments before pulled the trigger and nothing had happened.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Ellen, of Cold Springs; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Jennings of 545 La Gonda Way, Danville; a brother, Adrian Jennings Jr., and a sister, Dorothea Jennings.

Arrangements are being made at Bigelow and Heuton Funeral Home, Sonoma.

Absent Fathers Persuaded To Assist Families

District Attorney John A. Nejedly has reported that child support collections from absent fathers have increased steadily since Spring of 1959 when separate divisions were established by his office in the Social Service Department for the enforcement of the Aid to Needy Children program as well as non-welfare support matters.

Collection comparisons: 1958 — $248,052; 1959 — $297,065; 1960 — $322,984.

These figures represent amounts paid by the absent father through the Social Service and Probation Departments.

An ANC case characteristic study in April of 1960 reflected the fact that approximately $28,000 was paid by absent fathers monthly direct to the mother which on a projection basis would indicate a total of $540,000 paid over a one year period.

This figure added to the 1960 actual collections would total $862,984.00 paid during that year.

In actual criminal failure to provide cases, complaints were filed against absent fathers. Misdemeanor,

	1958	1959	1960
Complaints filed	24	256	425
Felony Complaints filed	2	47	86
Extraditions	2	3	7
Welfare Frauds (Complaints filed)	5	20	22
Civil Complaints under Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Law filed	47	70	143

In 1959 there were 138 convictions and pleas of guilty entered on the basis of criminal failure to provide complaints filed by the district attorney's office.

During 1960, convictions and pleas totaled 167.

Nejedly said two failure-to-provide divisions were initially set up — one in Richmond and the other in Martinez. It is anticipated that a spirit of cooperation will continue to exist between the district attorney's office and the Social Service Department in their mutual desire to affect the collection of child support from absent fathers, he said.

Your Garden

Grape Vines, Berry Bush Will Fit Small Garden

Do thoughts of fresh-picked blackberries topped with sugar and cream start your mouth watering? Or are fat bunches of grapes, still sun warm from the vine, your favorite dish? In either case, you should turn your thoughts to action this month and plant berry bushes or grape vines.

Let us fear that your garden is too small for such inhabitants; we pass on words of encouragement from the California Association of Nurserymen. It takes less space than you might imagine.

Grapes and berries can be trellised or trained on a fence to take up only a minimum of space. If you really delight in the end result, you'll make room for both of them no matter what.

LET YOUR palate be your guide, therefore. Choose a sunny spot in the garden away from overhead shade, and get to planting.

Grapes are true heat lovers and are best adapted to the warm valley areas and to Southern California. Along the coast—even in the fog belt—however, they will produce delicious bunches of fruit if properly placed.

In such areas trellis them against a sun-baked wall and watch them thrive on the reflected heat. Since some varieties mature better in your area than others, be sure to consult with your local CAN nurseryman before planting.

BLACKBERRIES, on the other hand, will thrive in moderately warm, coastal conditions. A few bushes will provide an abundant harvest through summer, some varieties yielding crops from late June into September.

The easiest and best way to grow these berries is on a wire trellis. Set four by four inch posts several feet apart and about four feet high. Then stretch wire between the post tops and another wire halfway between the top and the ground.

This is your trellis around which the long canes are loosely twined each year. A fence works nearly as well as a trellis, but a trellis is easier from which to harvest fruit. Spacewise, however, a fence may be your best solution in a small garden.

Home Grown Fruit Can Be Delicious

Here are some thoughts and ideas for the gardener to consider this week.

There's no fruit like home-grown fruit. Check with your nurseryman to find the best for your garden.

Plant wistaria this month. The new shoots should be guided with string in the direction you want them to grow.

For a ground cover you can forget about once it's established, try one of the low growing native Ceanothus varieties.

Light feeding this month will insure that your lawn gets off to a good start next month as weather warms up.

Dentists to Talk Hearts

A Dental Symposium, scheduled for February 28 at Alcalanes High School will instruct members of the dental profession in aspects of heart disease for their information in dealing with cardiac patients.

THE COUNTY Heart Association also co-sponsors a Nurses' Workshop and a workshop for teachers as professional education services.

Bringing the general public the latest health-saving information about heart disease is another objective of the Heart Association's program.

In addition to its day-by-day information service and the distribution of literature on diet, work simplification, and informational material on heart disease, a mass distribution of a pamphlet telling how to protect children from rheumatic fever, forerunner of rheumatic heart disease, and providing latest information about heart attack, high blood pressure and strokes will be made on Heart Sunday by the house to house volunteers.

Mrs. Gordon E. Poff is western area chairman for Heart Sunday. Mrs. C. C. Willert is county Heart Sunday chairman.

LOCAL LEADERS of the Heart Fund drive are Mesdames Gunnar Scholander, Alamo; Arthur Farrace and Dominic Graziani, Antioch; William Curry, Brentwood-Byron; Joseph Levanda, Concord; W. P. Deanton, Danville; Joseph L. Baldocchi, Knightsen; Arthur C. Scheu, Marcel Lescure and C. R.

Smith, Lafayette; Emil Flakus, Martinez; W. L. Arnold, Moraga.

Mesdames J. H. Schwarck and William Van Voorhis, Orinda; Arthur Honnegger, Jr., Oakley; Vincent Scotto and O. W. Green, Pittsburg; Kenneth Clark and Chester Tigard, Pleasant Hill; Arthur M. Kirtlan, Port Chicago; and Floyd Marchus, Walnut Creek.

VEHICLE REGISTRATIONS

Motor vehicle registrations are expected to reach 73,888,000 for 1960, a gain of 2,371,000 over the 71,497,000 registered in 1959, reports the National Automobile Club.

The Deputy Stuck to His Job

Sheriff Walter F. Young announced the retirement of Deputy Sheriff Phillip R. Donaldson, who has served 26 years. He joined the force in 1934 and the present administration. During his tenure the department has grown from 10 deputies to 170 total personnel.

"Deputy Donaldson enjoys the unique reputation of never taking one day of vacation or sick leave during his entire career due to his intense devotion to duty and desire to remain continuously on the job," said Sheriff Young.

"Deputy Donaldson will long be remembered by members of this department for his contribution to law enforcement and unwavering loyalty to the citizens he served," Young added.

Donaldson has been hired to replace Deputy Sheriff Richard K. Rountree. Deputy Rountree formerly made his home at Whittier. Deputy Young is married, has three children, one girl and two boys. He was previously employed as a member of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department, acquiring considerable experience in that department during his employment period of eight years.

Deputy Young attended San Jose State College, East Los Angeles Junior College and is a graduate of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Training Academy, and the Whittier Police Department Reserve Training School.

Deputy Young, as been assigned to the patrol division.

How To Cut School Construction Costs? County Board Is Studying

Use of standardized plans and other means of cutting costs of school construction are under study by the Contra Costa County Board of Education.

Board President Blair Rixon of Brentwood announced that a meeting in the near future will be devoted exclusively to school construction, with a speaker from the Legislative Counsel of California.

The possibility of the county agency making consultancy on school site selection and construction available to school districts was broached at the board's last meeting by Elvo Travalini of El Sobrante.

TRAVALINI opened the subject by estimating that $1,000,000 of a presumed $2 billion dollars which will be spent on school construction in Contra Costa County in the next 10 years could be saved by reuse of school building plans and economics resulting from consultancy services.

Travalini invited opinions on the subject from district superintendents present at the meeting.

Superintendent Glenn Dufour, John Swett Union High School District, approved the idea, with the reservation that the local district "keep the final say."

Superintendent Al Jusaitis, Carquinez School District, questioned whether there would be a saving in the face of the possibility that school districts would continue to choose their own architects.

THE BOARD conceded that the plan, to work would have to be implemented by authority not now provided or have the support of every district.

Travalini pressed for schools to take the initiative locally in school construction economy rather than letting the matter, by default, come under state control.

Recommendations for other services were submitted.

Superintendent George Schandelmier of Rodeo asked for expanded psychiatric service for severe emotional problems in pupils, staff members to act as "shock troops" by assisting the district whenever needed instead of on a scheduled basis, and the service of staff members to assist teachers with curriculum improvement in place of traditional in-service training courses.

Superintendent Jusaitis concurred in the previous recommendations and added a request for expanded guidance service.

Ass'n Reports County TB Increase

Recently published figures from the County Health Department revealed the highest incidence of tuberculosis in Contra Costa

County to be in Rodeo and Antioch, according to the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association.

County rate is 28 per 100,000. An increase in cases was also noted in Walnut Creek, Martinez, San Pablo and West Pittsburg areas.

The shift in cases noted in these areas has caused the Health Department to plan a tuberculin testing program in Antioch schools to begin this month, according to Dr. Kleona Rigney, County TB Control Officer.

Total new cases in the county are 113 during 1960.

Holiday for Christensens

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Christensen, 3262 Withers Avenue, Lafayette, were recent visitors at Newt Crumley's Holiday Hotel during a recent visit to Reno.

Mr. and Mrs. Christensen were accompanied to Reno by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hood.

Association Includes 5 Counties

The Association of Bay Area Governments, recently formed, includes Contra Costa County, four other counties and some 50 cities within.

Purpose is to study metropolitan problems of government.

The approval of San Mateo County supervisors qualified the association under the law which has minimum bylaw requirements for creation within the nine-county Bay Area.

The association will provide a "forum" where elected officials can draft recommendations for solving problems of government.

It is expected to have more influence than statutory power.

It has been predicted that San Francisco and Sonoma Counties may join the association, although there has been opposition there.

In Contra Costa County, 10 cities have joined. Only Antioch and Crockett have declined.

County Library Picks Children's Service Head

Appointment of Mrs. Elizabeth H. Lockhart as supervising librarian of Children's Services in the Contra Costa County Library system was announced this week.

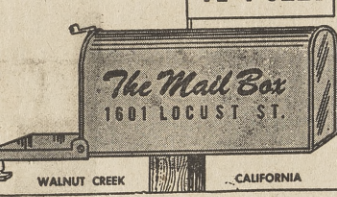

Mrs. Lockhart has filled this position provisionally since September, pending qualification by the recent written and oral civil service examination.

She is a graduate of New York State College for Teachers and obtained her library degree from this college's Graduate School of Library Science.

Before coming to California Mrs. Lockhart was public library children's consultant in the New York State Library Extension Division. She has also been assistant coordinator of Children's Library Services in the Queens Borough Public Library, New York City.

Santa Fe builds and buys 37 1/2 miles of new freight cars

As fast as they come off the assembly lines of the railroad car builders and our own car shops, 3475 new freight cars are going into service as a part of the Santa Fe improvement program.

This new equipment—enough to make up a train 37 1/2 miles long—consists of box cars, flat cars, mechanical temperature-controlled cars, triple-deck and double-deck automobile cars, covered and triple-cross hopper cars, gondola cars and ore cars.

Roller bearings to eliminate "hot box" delays, automatic devices to avoid icing refrigerator cars enroute, and other improved features are being used.

The new box cars will have hydraulic mechanisms (called Shock Control) to absorb shocks and jolts and help keep fragile merchandise free from damage. They will also have mechanical systems to hold loads of any size in place, and steel floors that can be nailed into as easily as wood.

Early this year, when this $60,000,000 car-building part of Santa Fe's continuing improvement program is completed, Santa Fe will have over 90,000 freight cars to meet the transportation needs of a growing America.
